No. 2937.

At a Marine Court assembled on Tuesday, the 7th day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, under Act No. XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Acting Mate Pilot B. Bensley was tried on the following charge:

Charge.—For negligence, ignorance or unskillfulness in the performance of his duty when in Pilotage charge of the French Ship Edouard, whereby in working down the Rangoon Channel during the afternoon of the Twenty-first day of the month of May, 1853, he ran that ship foul of the Lower Channel Creek Buoy, which tore the said Ship Edouard's rudder from the stern post, rendering the vessel unmanageable, and causing her to leak so seriously that it became necessary to beach and abandon her as a total wreck near Mud Point, upon the 23rd of May aforesaid.

By order, &c.,

(Sd.) H. Howe,

Secretary.

Fort William, the 2nd June, 1853.

Finding.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced upon the defence, is of opinion, that Mr. Acting Mate Pilot Benjamin Bensley is "not guilty" of the charge preferred against him—and do therefore fully acquit him, the said Mr. Acting Mate Pilot Benjamin Bensley, of all and every part of the said charge.

(Sd.) H. Pinnerington,

President.

(Sd.) THOMAS HILL,

Judge Advocate.

2. The Proceedings of the trial, having been submitted to Government, the Most Noble and Governor of Bengal has been pleased to approve of the Finding of the Court, and the Master Attendant has been requested to release Mr. Acting Mate Pilot B. Bensley from arrest, and to allow him to return to his duty.

By Order of the Officiating Superintendent of Marine,

H. Howe,

Secretary.

Fort William, the 24th June, 1853.

For the purpose of this study, the following definitions were used: Primary prevention is the prevention of disease or injury before it occurs; secondary prevention is the early diagnosis and treatment of disease or injury; tertiary prevention is the treatment of disease or injury after it has occurred.

It is a matter of common knowledge that the Government of India has been making considerable efforts to improve the condition of the people of the country. The Government has been successful in many of its efforts, and the people of India are now enjoying a higher standard of living than they did in the past. NOTIFICATION.

CALCUTTA COURT OF SMALL CAUSES.

THE 2ND MARCH, 1853.

In pursuance of the power vested in them by Section XII. of Act IX. of 1850, the Judges of the Small Cause Court, with the approval of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court, have rescinded Rules 20th and 21st of the Rules of Practice, and have framed the following amended Rules of the same numbers, which are now published for general information.

By the Court.

JOHN KING,

Clerk of the Court.

Present Rules.

RULE 20TH.—No new trial shall be granted unless application be made within four days after Judgment, and without leave of the Court having been first obtained, and before such application for leave shall be made the party making such application shall deposit in Court the whole amount of the debt or damages decreed against him, with costs thereon, and shall give notice in writing, of such application to the Clerk at his Office at the time of making such deposit.

RULE 21ST.—When money has been paid by any party, under any execution or order, if the Clerk receive notice from such party of his intention to apply to the Court to set aside the execution or orders under which the money is paid into Court, or to grant a New Trial, the Clerk shall retain the same for five days, within which time, the party must make such application to the Court, and if made, the money shall be retained until such application has been determined on, or until the Judge shall otherwise order.

Amended Rules.

RULE 20TH.—No new trial or motion to alter the amount of a Judgment shall be granted, unless a motion be made for a Rule Nisi, by the Plaintiff, within four days after the Judgment has been given, or by the Defendant on a Certificate of the deposit in Court of the amount for which the Judgment has been given, including the Costs, if any, within the same period, if he were present, or were represented at the hearing, or within the same period after he shall have obtained the said Certificate, if the Judgment were given ex-parte.

RULE 21ST.—In every case where the Defendant intends to move to reduce the amount of a Judgment, or for a New Trial, he must give notice at the time of making the deposit, to the Clerk, who shall then retain the same for five days; within which time the Defendant must move the Court for the Rule Nisi. On the granting the Rule Nisi, the money shall be detained in Court, till the Rule has been made absolute, or till such other time as the Court shall order. In the event of notice not being given to the Clerk as aforesaid, or of the Rule Nisi being refused, the Plaintiff may take the money out of Court without further delay.

SUPPLEMENT TO
The Calcutta Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 22nd April, 1853.

The following Act is brought up before the Legislative Council this day. The Governor General of India in Council being desirous that no time should be lost in passing the Act;

Resolved,—That the Rule requiring that no Draft of a law shall be ordered to be published till at least one week shall have elapsed from the day on which it was first laid before the Council of India in its Legislative Department, and that the Rules requiring that all Acts of the Governor General of India in Council shall be brought up for second reading in two months, or in three months, from the date of the first reading, be suspended in respect to the following proposed Act, and that it be at once passed into law.

ACT NO. IX. OF 1853.

An Act to amend Act No. VI. of 1853.

It is hereby enacted, that the first eight Sections of Act No. VI. of 1853, shall not extend to any case in which a petition for the sale of any saleable tenure was presented on the first day of Bysack, 1260, of the Bengal era, nor to any case in which any proceedings were pending at the time of the passing of the said Act.

J. P. GRANT,

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
the 22nd April 1853.

The following draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 22nd of April 1853.

ACT NO. — OF 1853.

An Act for bringing under the operation of the Regulations and Acts in force in the Presidency of Bombay, certain Territories subordinate to that Presidency.

Whereas the possessions of the Chief of Vishalghur, situate below the Ghauts in the Southern Concan., have been added to the British Territories:

I. It is hereby enacted that from and after the 1st day of 1853, the villages and hamlets mentioned in the annexed Schedule shall be subject to all Regulations and Acts which are, or shall be, in force within the Territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay.

II. It is hereby further enacted that the Pargannahs of Yawul, Chopra, and Pachora, and the turf of Lohara, in the Province of Khandesh, formerly belonging to His Highness Scindia, and which have been permanently ceded to the British Government, shall be deemed to have been subject from the 26th of February, 1845, to the Regulations and Acts in force in the Bombay Presidency to the same extent as if the said Pargannahs and turf had not been transferred to His Highness Scindia after the passing of Regulation XXIX. of 1827 of the Bombay Code, and shall continue to be subject to the same extent to all Regulations and Acts which are or shall be in force within the Territories subject to the Presidency of Bombay.

SCHEDULE.

Territorial description of the villages forming the Ghera of the Vishalghur Fort, formerly belonging to the Pratimdhree of Colapoor: they are bounded on the East by the Syhadree range, on the South and West by the Lanje Turf of the Ratnaghirree District, on the North by the Dewul Turf of the Ratnaghirree District.

The Ghera is comprised of the undermentioned villages and hamlets, 19:

Secy. to the Govt. of India.

SUPPLEMENT TO
The Calcutta Gazette.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1853.

East-William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 13th May, 1853.

The following draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the 13th
May, 1853.

Act No. —

An Act for the management of the Post Office, and for the regulation of the duties of Postage.

I. Act No. XVII. of 1837, Act No. XX. of 1839, and Act No. XVII. of 1839, are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole, or any part of any other Act or Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

II. Within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, the said East India Company shall have the exclusive privilege of conveying by post from one place to another all letters, except in the following cases, and shall also have the exclusive privilege of performing all the incidental services of receiving, collecting, sending, dispatching and delivering all letters, except in the following cases, that is to say:

1. Letters to or from any place to which there is no communication by the post, or along any line of road by which the post does not travel.
2. Letters sent by a private friend in his way, journey or travel, so as such letters be delivered by such friend to the party to whom they shall be directed.
3. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose concerning the affairs of the sender or receiver, thereof.
4. Letters solely concerning goods or other property sent either by sea or land, to be delivered with the goods or property which such letters concern, without hire or reward or other profit or advantage for receiving or delivering such letters.

But nothing herein contained shall authorize any person to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner hereby authorized.

III. The following persons are expressly for-bidden to carry, deliver or collect any letter, or letters or to receive any letter for the purpose of carrying or delivering the same, although they shall not receive hire or reward for so doing, that is to say:

1. Common carriers of goods, or passengers, or their drivers, servants or agents, except letters solely concerning goods in their carriages, and except on lines of road on which the post does not travel.
2. Owners, or Commanders of ships, steam boats, or passage boats, passing to or from any port in the territories under the Government of the East India Company, or their servants or agents, except letters solely concerning goods on board.
3. Passengers on board such ships, steam boats or passage boats.
4. Owners of, or others on board of a ship, steam boat, or other boat passing on a river, or navigable canal within the territories under the Government of the East India Company.

IV. Every person who shall convey otherwise than by the post a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege shall for every letter so conveyed forfeit fifty rupees, and every person who shall be in the practice of so conveying letters not so excepted, shall for every week during which the practice shall be continued forfeit a further sum of five hundred rupees; and every person who shall perform any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place otherwise than by the post, whether by receiving, taking up, ordering, carrying, delivering or collecting a letter or letters not excepted from the said exclusive privilege, shall forfeit for every such letter fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of performing any such incidental services, shall for every week during which the practice shall be continued forfeit a further sum
of five hundred rupees; and every person who shall send a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege, otherwise than by the post, or shall cause a letter not so excepted to be sent or conveyed otherwise than by post, or shall either tender or deliver a letter not so excepted in order to be sent otherwise than by post, shall forfeit for every such letter fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned, shall for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum of five hundred rupees; and every person who shall make a collection of excepted letters for the purpose of conveying them either by the post or otherwise, shall forfeit for every such letter fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of making a collection of excepted letters for either of these purposes, shall forfeit for every week during which the practice shall continue, a further sum of five hundred rupees. Every person who shall carry, receive or deliver a letter or collect letters contrary to the provisions of Section III. of this Act, shall forfeit for every such letter fifty rupees; and every such person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned, shall for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum of five hundred rupees.

V. For carrying on the service of the Post Office, it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, or for the local Governments with the previous sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, from time to time, to appoint such Officers or Officers, with such official styles or designations, and to vest them with, and delegate to them such powers not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor General of India in Council may deem expedient.

VI. Inland postage shall be charged by weight on letters transmitted by the post according to the following scale:

On every letter not exceeding a quarter of a tola in weight, six pies.

On every letter exceeding a quarter of a tola, and not exceeding half a tola in weight, one anna.

On every letter exceeding half a tola, but not exceeding one tola in weight, two annas.

On every letter exceeding one tola, and not exceeding one tola and a half in weight, three annas.

On every letter exceeding one tola and a half, and not exceeding two tola in weight, four annas.

And for every tola in weight above two tola there shall be charged and taken two additional annas, and every fraction of a tola above two tola shall be charged as one additional tola.

Provided such letters be duly and properly stamped when posted, as hereinafter provided.

VII. Inland postage on newspapers, pamphlets and other printed or engraved papers transmitted by the post shall be charged by weight according to the following scales:

1. On every imported newspaper, pamphlet or other printed or engraved paper—

If the same shall not exceed six tola in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed six but shall not exceed twelve tola in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed twelve tola in weight there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every six tola in weight above twelve tola, and every fraction of six tola above twelve tola shall be charged as six additional tola.

2. On every newspaper, pamphlet or other printed or engraved paper not imported.

If the same shall not exceed three and a half tola in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed three and a half tola and not exceed six tola in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed six tola in weight there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every three tola in weight above six tola, and every fraction of three tola above six tola in weight shall be charged as three additional tola.

Provided that nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to oblige any person to send any newspaper, pamphlet or other printed or engraved paper through the Post Office, but it shall be lawful for all persons to send the same in any other manner.

3. Newspapers, pamphlets or other printed or engraved paper shall be sent by post at the rates prescribed in the preceding Section, unless the following conditions be observed, that is to say:—

1. It shall be sent without a cover, or in a short cover open at the sides.

2. There shall be no word or communication printed on such paper or pamphlet after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom it is sent.

3. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such paper or pamphlet.

IX. Every person who shall enclose or cause or procure to be enclosed in a newspaper, pamphlet or other printed or engraved paper to be sent by the post, or under the cover thereof, any letter, paper or thing, and every person who with the intention of sending by the post any newspaper, pamphlet or other printed or engraved paper, shall print, write or put, or cause to be printed, written or put, upon such newspaper, pamphlet or other printed or engraved paper, or any part thereof, after the same shall have been published or upon the cover thereof, any word, communication or mark other than the name and address of the person to whom it shall be sent or intended to be sent, and every person who shall knowingly either send or cause to be sent by the post, or who shall either deliver or tender in order to be sent by the post, a newspaper, pamphlet or other printed or engraved paper in respect to which any one of the offences hereinbefore mentioned shall have been committed, shall for every such offence forfeit fifty rupees.

X. Proof sheets marked as such may be sent by the post at the rates prescribed for newspapers, provided they be brought to the dispatching office open, and be sealed in the presence of the person in charge of such office.

And for every hundred tolahs in weight above one hundred tolahs, there shall be charged and taken one additional rupee, and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above one hundred tolahs, shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs.

Provided that no letter or packet upon which ship postage as aforesaid has been taken at the office of dispatch, shall be liable to any further charge of ship postage on account of being received at any other office.

XVIII. No parcel exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, or three feet in length, or one foot in breadth, or one foot in depth, or two thousand five hundred and ninety-two cubic inches in bulk, shall be received at any Post Office for despatch either by ship or steam boat, or by banghy post, except in such cases and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council or the respective local Governments shall direct. On parcels exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight when so forwarded, there shall be charged and taken an additional single rate of banghy postage according to distance for every hundred tolahs or part thereof above six hundred tolahs.

XIX. Letters and newspapers posted for dispatch to Ceylon, or by ship or Government steamer to any place beyond the territories under the government of the East India Company, upon which the full amount of inland or ship postage, or both, chargeable under this Act, has not been paid, shall not be dispatched, but shall be sent to the dead letter office and returned, if practicable, to the sender. No parcel shall be received for dispatch as above to any such place, unless the full amount of postage chargeable thereon shall be prepaid.

XX. Subject to any alteration which may be made by virtue of the power hereinafter vested in the Governor General of India in Council, letters posted for dispatch either by sea or land, from one place to another, in the territories under the Government of the East India Company without having a stamp affixed thereto as hereinafter mentioned, shall be transmitted to the destination, and upon every such letter there shall be charged a postage of double the amount specified in Section VI. of this Act, but newspapers, packets and parcels so posted for dispatch without having a stamp affixed thereto and upon which the postage chargeable as aforesaid, or a part thereof, shall not have been paid, shall nevertheless be forwarded to their destination, and charged with the whole or so much of the postage chargeable thereon as shall not have been paid. If any such letter be posted having thereon or affixed thereto as hereinafter mentioned any stamp or stamps, to be provided as hereinafter mentioned, the value or amount of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under Section VI. of this Act if duly and properly stamped when posted, there shall be charged on such letter a postage of double the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp or stamps affixed thereto and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid, if duly and properly stamped when posted. If any such newspaper, packet or parcel shall be so posted, having thereon or affixed thereto any such stamp or stamps, the value or amount of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which such packet or parcel would be otherwise liable under this Act, there shall be charged on such newspaper, packet or parcel, a postage equal to the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp or stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such newspaper, packet or parcel shall be otherwise liable as aforesaid.

XXI. On every letter, or packet, whether inland or imported, which may be re-directed and forwarded by post, there shall be charged for the postage thereof from the place at which the same shall be re-directed to the place of ultimate delivery, in addition to all other postage paid or due thereon, such a rate of postage as the same would be liable to if prepaid, or duly and properly stamped when posted.

XXII. All letters and other articles shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed and delivered under such regulations and subject to such conditions and restrictions as to dimensions, enclosures or otherwise, as the Governor General of India in Council or the local Governments may direct. Provided that no person shall knowingly post, or cause to be posted, or send, or cause to be sent, or tender, or deliver in order to be sent, by the post, any letter or packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance; and any person contravening this prohibition shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to authorize the levy of postage dues at rates different from those prescribed in this Act, provided there be no increase made thereby in any particular of the rates so prescribed, except as provided in Section XXXVI. of this Act.

XXIV. Letters once delivered into any Post Office shall not be recalled by or restored to the sender except as provided by Section XXXVII. of this Act. But newspapers and parcels may be so recalled or restored, provided that the person claiming the same shall satisfy the officer in charge of the Post Office that he was the sender thereof, and that the amount of postage which would have been due on such newspaper or parcel, if the same had been forwarded, be paid.

XXV. The postage charged on letters and packets by Her Majesty's Post Master General, under the name of Steamer British packet postage, or by any any acquittal, shall, after the rates of such postage have been published in the official Gazette of any Presidency, be recovered in the same manner as postage chargeable under this Act.

XXVI. All letters and other articles, if having a stamp or stamps affixed thereto (such stamp or stamps in every case being affixed on the outside, and being equal in value or amount to the rate or rates of postage to which such letters or other articles are liable under this Act,) shall, provided the stamp or stamps shall not have been used before, pass to the post free of postage.

XXVII. The Governor General of India in Council shall cause stamps to be provided, denoting rates or duties of six pice, and one anna, or rates or duties of such other value or amount as the said Governor General of India in Council may direct, and shall give such other orders and make such other regulations relative thereto as may be deemed expedient.

XXVIII. The rates or duties which shall be expressed or denoted by any such stamps as aforesaid, shall be under the care and management of such Officer or Officers as the Governor General of India in Council or the local Governments with the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council shall direct. And all sums of money realized by the sale of postage stamps shall be brought in the public accounts to the credit of the Post Office.

XXIX. The Governor General of India in Council, or any of the local Governments may appoint Government vendors of postage stamps, and may make rules for the regulation of such vendors of stamps, and thereby direct how and under what terms and conditions postage stamps may be supplied to them for sale; and whether any and what security shall be given by such vendors, and whether any and what remuneration or discount shall be allowed to them, and how and in what manner and at what time or times such vendors shall keep and render their accounts and pay over the proceeds of any sales made by them, or to deliver the stamps intrusted to them.

XXX. If any person so appointed a vender of stamps shall accept the appointment he shall be bound by such rules, and in case of any wilful breach thereof shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees, in addition to any other proceedings to which he may be liable.

XXXI. Any person so appointed a vender of stamps who shall be convicted of refusing or unnecessarily delaying without reasonable excuse to furnish postage stamps to any person desiring to purchase the same, and tendering in local currency the full value thereof (the stamp vender having in his possession for sale sufficient stamps of the description and value required) shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

XXXII. Any person so appointed vender of stamps convicted of taking from a purchaser a higher price than that denoted on the stamps sold, shall be deemed guilty of extortion and shall be punished on conviction with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and shall also be liable to refund to the purchaser the whole amount proved to have been taken in excess, which amount may be recovered by such purchaser before a Magistrate in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

XXXIII. If any person shall forge or counterfeit or cause or procure to be forged, or counterfeited, any die, plate or other instrument which shall be used for the purpose of making any stamps which shall be provided as aforesaid; or if any person shall forge or imitate, or cause to be forged or imitated, any stamp or stamps which shall be provided as aforesaid; or if any person shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any false, forged or counterfeited die, plate or other instrument resembling or intended to resemble, either wholly or in part, any die, plate or instrument that shall be used for the purpose aforesaid; or if any person shall stamp or mark, or cause to be stamped or marked, any paper or other substance with any such false, forged or counterfeited die, plate or instrument as aforesaid; or if any person shall knowingly use, after, sell, or expose for sale, or cause to be used, uttered, sold or exposed for sale, or shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any paper or other substance having thereon the impression of any such false, forged, or counterfeit die or other instrument as aforesaid; or having thereon any counterfeit stamp resembling or intended to resemble, or be mistaken for the stamp or stamps which shall be provided as aforesaid; then and in every such case every person so offending, and every person knowingly aiding, abetting or assisting any person in committing any such offence, shall be punished with imprisonment with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

XXXIV. If any person shall fraudulently remove or cause to be removed, from any letter, newspaper, or other cover or paper any stamp or stamps provided and used as aforesaid, with intent to use or place such stamp or stamps with or upon any other letter, newspaper or other cover or paper or otherwise to dispose of the same; or if any person shall knowingly use or cause to be used any such stamp or stamps so fraudulently removed; or if any person shall fraudulently erase or remove or cause to be erased or removed from any such stamp or stamps any writing or other matter or thing thereon written or impressed, with intent to use any such stamp or stamps, every person so offending shall forfeit two hundred rupees for every such offence.

XXXV. In all cases, except that of letters and packets posted for despatch to any place beyond the territories under the Government of the East India Company, it shall be optional with parties sending any letters or packets by the post, to forward the same free of postage by means of a proper stamp or stamps placed or affixed thereon in the manner hereinbefore provided; or to forward them unpaid, or in the case of parcels only, to prepay the postage in money. But no money shall hereafter be received at any Post Office in prepayment of postage on any letter, newspaper or other printed or engraved paper forwarded by the post. Provided that nothing in this Section shall be construed to require the prepayment of British packet postage or letters or packets upon which the prepayment of such postage has been left optional by Her Majesty's Post Master General.

XXXVI. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to withdraw either wholly or in part the option allowed by the preceding Section of this Act; and to direct that all or any letters, packets or parcels shall not be forwarded by post unless the postage thereof shall be prepaid by means of a proper stamp or stamps, or to charge on all letters packets or parcels on which the postage shall not be prepaid, or which shall not be duly and properly stamped, such higher rates of postage than would otherwise be payable, as from time to time be deemed expedient.

XXXVII. The person to whom any letter or packet, the postage of which has not been paid, may be delivered shall not be bound to pay the postage if he return the same unopened. Sec. If he open the same he shall be bound to pay the postage thereon. If he refuse the same unopened, the sender of the letter or packet shall be bound to pay the postage thereon. If any person shall refuse to pay any postage which he is legally bound to pay for any letter or packet, the same may be recovered by any Post Master General, or any Officer in charge of a Post Office, for the use of the East India Company, in the same manner as a fine recovered under this Act, and it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Post Office to withhold from the person so refusing, until such postage be paid, any other letter or packet addressed to that person not being superscribed as on the public service.

XXXVIII. In case it be deemed expedient that any letters or other packets should be registered at the Post Office, it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to direct that in addition to any rates of postage payable under this Act, a fee not exceeding four annas shall be charged on any such letter or packet, and such registration fee shall be paid on the letter being put into the Post Office.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to fix and order any rate of postage to be charged for the conveyance of letters and packets by express, in addition to or instead of any other rates of postage chargeable on such letters and packets under this Act.

XL. When any Vessel arrives by sea at any place within the territories under the Government of the East India Company at which there is a Post Office, the Commander of such vessel shall as speedily as possible cause every letter and packet on board of such vessel, which is directed to that place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege of the Post Office, to be delivered either at the Post Office, or to some Officer of the Post Office authorized to receive the same. And if there be on board any letter or packet directed to any other place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege aforesaid, the said Commander shall as speedily as possible report the same to the Post Master of the place at which he has arrived, and shall not according to the directions he may receive from such Post Master, and the receipt of such Post Master shall discharge such Commander from all responsibility in respect of such letter or packet. Every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any of the directions contained in this Section, shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

XLI. Every person, being either the Commander of a vessel inward bound, or any one on board such vessel, who shall within the said territories knowingly have in his possession any letter not excepted from the privilege of the Post Office, after any part of the letters on board the said vessel, shall have been sent to the Post Office, shall forfeit for every such letter fifty rupees, whether the letter be in the baggage or on the person of the offender or otherwise in his custody. And every such person who shall detain any such letter after demand made for the same by an Officer of the Post Office, shall forfeit for every such letter one hundred rupees.

XLII. For every letter or packet delivered by the Commander of any ship in conformity with the directions of Section XI. of this Act the Officer in charge of the Post Office shall pay to the said Commander the sum of one anna. Provided that no payment shall be made to the Commander of any vessel on account of the delivery of any letter or packet unless the claim of such commander shall be preferred before the vessel leaves the place at which the letter or packet was delivered, or before the expiration of two months from the date of the arrival of such vessel.

XLIII. The Commander of every vessel leaving any place in the said territories by sea, shall receive on board of such vessel every letter and packet which he shall be required so to receive by any Officer of the Post Office, and shall give a receipt for such letters or packets. And every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any direction contained in this Section, shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

XLIV. A list of all letters and packets of which the persons addressed cannot be found, shall be prepared daily at every Post Office and exposed for not less than two weeks in the most public and conspicuous part of such Office, and all such letters and packets which shall have remained three months unclaimed at any Post Office shall be sent to the Post Master General of the presidency. At intervals of not more than three months, the said Post Master General shall publish in the Official Gazette of the Presidency or in such other manner as shall be directed by the Governor General of India in Council, lists of all such unclaimed letters and packets of which the addresses are written in the English language or character. Every letter and packet which shall have remained eighteen months unclaimed in the office of the Post Master General of any Presidency, shall be opened by the said Post Master General; and if any money shall be found therein it shall be paid into the public treasury, and if any other valuable property, it shall be sold and the proceeds of the sale paid in like manner into the public treasury for the benefit of any person who may have a right thereto, and if no such person shall be found, the said money and property shall be paid into the public treasury. And within one year shall have elapsed after letter or packet has been opened, it shall be lawful for the Post Master General, if it be still unclaimed, to destroy it.

XLV. Letters or packets rejected unopened by the person to whom they are addressed shall be forthwith sent to the office of the Post Master General of the Presidency and by him opened and destroyed. And all money or other valuable property which such letters or packets may contain shall be disposed of in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section, with respect to such money or property contained in unclaimed letters.

XLVI. On and after the passing of this Act, the privilege of sending and receiving letters and packets by the post free of postage, whether official or otherwise, shall wholly cease; and all letters and packets to which any such privilege now extends shall henceforth be charged with the same rates of postage as any other letters sent by the post. Provided that letters and packets on the public service, certified to be such by the signature of any public officer, now or hereafter authorized by the Governor General of India in Council, or by the Local Governments respectively in that behalf, shall be forwarded by the post as if they were duly stamped, and the postage due thereon shall be charged to the several public departments, from which such letters or packets are sent, in such manner as the said Governor General of India in Council shall direct.

XLVII. Every person who shall for the purpose of defrauding the Post Office Revenue wilfully certify, or cause to be certified by writing on any official or other letter or packet delivered at any Post Office for conveyance by post that which is not true in respect of such letter or packet, or in respect of the whole of its contents, or shall knowingly send or deliver or cause to be sent or delivered, or attempt to send or deliver for conveyance by post, any letter or packet with any such false certificate thereon; and every person who shall knowingly send or permit to be sent by post under colour or pretence of an official communication any letter, paper, writing or other enclosure of a private nature, shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

XLVIII. If any Officer in charge of a Post Office shall suspect that any letter or packet lying for delivery at his Office contains any contraband article, or any article on which duty is owing to Government, or that any letter or packet lying for delivery at the Post Office contains any writing or enclosure in contravention of the provisions of Sections VIII., XV., XVI. or XLVII. of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Officer to summon the person to whom the letter or packet is directed to attend at the Post Office by himself or Agent within forty-eight hours after the arrival of the letter or packet at that Post Office, and to open the letter or packet in the presence of the person to whom the letter or packet is directed, or of that person's Agent, and if that person shall not so attend by himself or Agent, then to open the letter or packet in the absence of that person. It shall also be lawful for any Officer in charge of a Post Office to refuse to forward any parcel through the Post Office by land to any foreign port or to any place not on the continent of India, unless such parcel be accompanied by a Custom House Pass.

XLIX. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of anything entrusted to the Post Office for conveyance, and no person employed by the Government in the Post Office Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage unless that person shall cause such loss or damage maliciously or fraudulently.

L. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department, shall fraudulently secret, make away with or appropriate any letter or packet which has been entrusted to him, or anything contained in any such letter or packet, or shall mutilate or break open any such letter or packet, or any bag or parcel or box, with intention of fraudulently appropriating anything contained therein, shall be punished with imprisonment with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine; and nothing herein contained shall extend to the opening of a letter or packet returned for its true direction, or because the person to whom the same shall be directed, cannot be found, or refuses or neglects to pay the postage thereof, or to the opening of a letter or packet suspected to contain any contraband article, or any writing in contravention of the provisions of this Act, or to the opening of a letter or packet directed to any place not in the territories under the government of the East India Company on which the proper amount of postage shall not have been paid.

LI. It shall not be lawful for any person, except a Secretary to Government, acting by Order of the Government, to detain a Post Office messenger, whilst carrying the mails, or to detain any carriage or horse upon which the mails are being carried, or on any pretence to open a packet in transit from one Post Office to another; and every person who shall be guilty of any of the above-mentioned offences shall be punished with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

LII. Every person who shall fraudulently retain, or wilfully secret, or keep or detain, or being required to deliver up by an officer of the Post Office, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up a post letter or packet which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or a post letter bag or post letter or packet which shall have been sent, whether the same shall have been found by the person secreting, keeping or neglecting to deliver up the same, or by any other person, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

LIII. Every person employed to convey or deliver any post bag or any letter or packet sent by post who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness or other misconduct which may be prejudicial to the conveyance or delivery of any such bag or letter or packet, or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey any such bag, letter or packet shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

LIV. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department, and being entrusted to receive money for postage duty or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for fraudulently altering marks on letters. LIV. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV, shall fraudulently put any wrong mark on any letter or packet, or shall fraudulently alter, remove or cause to disappear any mark or stamp which is on any letter or packet, or shall fraudulently use or place with or upon any letter or any stamp which have been removed, shall be punished on conviction before a Magistrate, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for intentionally appropriating documents or secreting documents entrusted to the Post Office. LVI. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV, and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall, with a fraudulent intention, prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or secret or destroy that document, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for sending letters without charging postage by persons employed as above. LVII. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV, shall send by the post or put into any post bag, any unstamped letter or packet upon which postage has not been paid or charged in the manner prescribed in this Act, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the postage due on such letter or packet, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

When fine to be levied. LVIII. All fines incurred under the provisions of this Act by any person except in respect of offences punishable by fine in addition to imprisonment shall, upon conviction of the offender before any Magistrate, be levied, together with the costs attending the information and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party or parties offending by warrant under the hand of such Magistrate, and, if upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereon, then it shall be lawful for any magistrate, by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause such offender or offenders to be committed to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such Magistrate, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case, the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount of the fine and of the costs attending the information and conviction. A share not exceeding one moiety of every fine imposed and recovered under this Act shall be awarded to the informer. No proceedings shall be taken for the recovery of any such fine without an order of the Government, or an order in writing of a Post Master General, or of an Officer in charge of a Post Office.

Servants of East India Company committing offences in aforesaid States in aforesaid manner. LIX. If any servant of the East India Company, who shall be employed by the said Company in the Post Office Department, or shall be appointed a vender of postage stamps or entrusted by the said Company or any of the said local Governments with the sale of postage stamps within the dominions of any foreign Prince or state in alliance with the said Company, in which a post shall be established by the said Company shall within the dominions of such Prince or State commit any act hereby prohibited, or omit to do any act hereby required to be done, by any person similarly employed, appointed or entrusted as aforesaid within the territories under the Government of the said Company such servant of the said Company shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished in the same manner as if such act had been done or omitted within the said last mentioned territories, and every such person may be convicted and punished either by fine or otherwise, according to the nature of the offence, by any Magistrate or Court in any part of the said last mentioned territories in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in such part of the said territories.

LX. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include Joint Magistrates, persons lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate: Justices of the Peace, and Police Magistrates; and the word "fine" shall include a penalty or forfeiture.

District dawks. LXI. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame Rules for the management of all or any Zemindaree, Thannah or other district dawks, and to declare from time to time, what portions of this Act shall be applicable to such dawks, and to persons employed in connection therewith.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be reconsidered at the first Meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the 13th day of August next.

FIRST SUPPLEMENT TO
The Calcutta Gazette.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8, 1853.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 27th May, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 27th May, 1853.

Act No. — of 1853.

An Act to raise Funds by Assessment and Taxes for Municipal purposes, throughout the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca.

1. It is hereby enacted that from the day of ~~1853~~ 185, Act No. IX. of 1848, is repealed, except as to anything done or omitted to be done under or according to the directions of the said Act, and except as to any assessment which shall have been made, or to any money which shall have become due, under the said Act, and to any proceedings already commenced or hereafter to be commenced for the recovery thereof, or in respect of anything done or omitted as aforesaid. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall revive Act No. XII. of 1839, or Act No. XII. of 1840.

II. From the day of 185, an assessment, at a rate not exceeding ten per cent, to be fixed and determined from time to time as hereinafter mentioned, shall be levied either quarterly or half-yearly in advance upon the actual rent (in cases where rent is paid or payable), and upon the estimated rent (in cases where no rent is paid or payable) of all houses, shops, and other buildings, within the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, to be paid by the tenant or tenants, or occupier or occupiers of such houses, shops or other buildings charged; and all houses, shops or other buildings, which shall have been used or occupied thirty days during any one quarter, or sixty days during any half-year, shall be liable to be assessed at the rate aforesaid for the whole of that quarter or half-year as the case may be; and such assessment may be levied and demanded, and shall be payable at any time before the expiration of the quarter or half-year for which the same shall be charged, in the same manner as if the same had been demanded in advance.

III. Provided always that the following buildings shall be exempted from assessment under this Act:

1. Any house, shop or other building of which the actual or estimated rent per annum shall be less than six dollars, if it shall be the sole assessable property of the person or persons charged therewith.
2. Places of public worship.
3. Charitable institutions recognized by the Government of the said Settlement.
4. Mills, drying and boiling houses and laborer's huts attached to plantations.
5. Barracks, cantonments, lines for soldiers and sepoy's and officers' quarters situated therein.
6. Police offices and stations.
7. Jails and convict lines.
8. Public buildings.
9. Schools not used as private residences.

IV. From the day of 185, an assessment, at a rate not exceeding five per cent, to be fixed and determined from time to time as hereinafter mentioned, shall be levied half-yearly or annually upon the actual rent (in cases where rent is actually paid or payable), or on the estimated rent (in cases where no rent is paid or payable), of all lands situated within the said Settlement, and also of all lands situated in Province Wellesley, a dependency of Prince of Wales' Island aforesaid, to be paid by the proprietor or his agent, or by the person or persons in charge of such lands; Provided always that no assessment shall be levied on any land of which the actual or estimated rent per annum shall be less than six dollars, if it shall be the sole assessable property of the person or persons charged, nor on any land belonging to, claimed by, or in the possession or occupation of the East India Company, nor on any quit rent paid to the said Company.

V. From and after the day of 185, a tax shall be levied, either quarterly or half-yearly in advance, on all carriages, waggons, carts, horses, ponies, mares, asses and elephants, which are or may be kept or used in the said Settlement and its dependencies, to be paid by the owners or persons in charge of the same at the following rates per annum, namely:

For every four or three wheeled Carriage,	Sp. Drs. 10 0
For every two wheeled Carriage,	" 8 0
For every Waggon drawn by man or beast,	" 8 0
For every cart drawn by any description of cattle,	" 6 0
For every cart drawn by man,	" 4 0
For every horse, poney, mare, mule or ass,	" 2 0
For every elephant,	" 12 0

and such taxes or any of them may be levied and demanded, and shall be payable at any time during the quarter or half-year for which the same shall be charged.

Provided always that no horses, ponies or mares, or any carriages or other vehicles, shall be liable to be taxed under this Act, which shall have been imported into the said Settlement for sale, and not in use; provided that the same shall be in the hands of the importer thereof or his agent.

VI. It is provided further that the several vehicles and animals hereinafter mentioned shall be exempted from taxation under this Act, namely:

1. Waggons and carts belonging to Government, and employed exclusively in the public service.
2. Waggons and carts kept exclusively within estates or plantations, not used upon the public highways, having the name of the owner painted upon some conspicuous part thereof in letters not less than two inches in length, and registered at the office of the Collector of Assessment and Taxes.
3. Hearsees kept only for the removal of corpses.
4. Brood mares, foals and elephants kept within estates or plantations, and not brought or used upon the public roads or bridges.

VII. For the purposes of this Act, the dependency of Province Wellesley shall be considered as part and parcel of the station of Prince of Wales' Island, and every matter and thing in this Act contained in any wise relating to the said station of Prince of Wales' Island, not otherwise specially provided for, shall be held to include and apply to the dependency of Province Wellesley aforesaid.

VIII. There shall be a Committee, to consist of five persons, for executing such of the powers of this Act as are not otherwise provided for at each of the stations of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca; two of the Members of each Committee shall be appointed by the Chief Civil Authority for the time being of the said Settlement, and the other three Members thereof shall be elected at each of the said stations in manner hereinafter mentioned, and each such Committee, when so constituted, shall be styled the "MUNICIPAL COMMITTEE."

IX. Every person residing in the said Settlement whose annual payment of assessment on lands and houses, under this Act, shall amount to the sum of twenty dollars and upwards shall be entitled to vote in the election of the said three last mentioned Members of the Municipal Committee, and shall be qualified to be a Member of the Municipal Committee of the station at which he shall at the time of election be residing.

X. All elections under this Act shall be under the management of the Sheriff of the said Settlement, who shall appoint a deputy to act for him at each of the stations of the said Settlement at which he shall not himself be present and every such deputy while so acting for the Sheriff shall have the same powers and duties as the Sheriff, with respect to the station in which he shall be acting.

XI. The elective Members of the Municipal Committee shall be chosen on any day within the first week of December in each year, such day to be appointed by the Sheriff or his deputies; of which day, and also of the place of election, the said Sheriff or his deputy shall give public notice thirty days at least before the day of election.

XII. The Sheriff or his deputies shall cause to be prepared in each year correct lists of the persons qualified to vote at each of the stations of the said Settlement, which lists shall be published and shall be open for public inspection at the office of the Sheriff or his deputies between the hours of ten in the morning and three in the afternoon on every day, Sundays excepted, between the 31st day of October and the day of election, when the said lists shall be taken to the place of election, for the use of the said Sheriff or his deputies. Provided always, that the said lists shall or may be revised or amended by the Court of Judicature of the said Settlement on the application of any person qualified to vote at any such election, provided that such application be made at least five days before the day of election. For the purpose of preparing such lists, it shall be lawful for the said Sheriff or his deputies at any time or times to inspect all assessment books, accounts, records and papers kept by or in the custody or control of the Collector of Assessment and Taxes appointed under this Act.

XIII. At the time and place appointed for the election, the Sheriff or his deputy shall attend with a closed box with an opening for the reception of voting tickets. Every voting ticket shall bear the signature of the voter and the names of the persons for whom he shall vote in the following form, namely:—I, the undersigned, a rate-payer and voter, duly qualified, do hereby give my vote for as a Member of the Municipal Committee for the day of the

XIV. Every voter having written on his voting ticket the names of the persons for whom he wishes to vote, and having signed the same, shall personally attend at the place of election, and shall deliver his voting tickets to the Sheriff or his deputy, who, on being satisfied of the identity of the person tendering the voting ticket with the person whose signature it bears, shall deposit such voting ticket in the said closed box.

XV. As soon as the election is completed, the Sheriff or his deputy, in the presence of the voters, or such of them as shall be present, shall ascertain the number of votes given for each person, and the Sheriff or his deputy shall thereupon publicly declare the names of the three persons for whom the greatest number of votes has been given, and shall declare such persons to be duly elected Members of the Municipal Committee of the Station at which such election took place.

XVI. In case the persons so elected, or any of them, shall refuse to serve as Members of the Municipal Committee, the Sheriff or his deputies shall, immediately after such refusal, declare the name or names of the person or persons for whom the next greatest number of votes has been given, and shall declare such last mentioned person or persons to be duly elected a Member or Members of the said Municipal Committee, in the place of such person or persons first elected, who shall refuse to serve as aforesaid. Provided always, that no person shall be competent to be elected a Member of the Municipal Committee of either of the said stations unless the number of votes given in his favor shall exceed ten.

XVII. The names of the persons elected at every election shall be certified by the Sheriff or his deputies to the Chief Civil Authority of the said Settlement, who shall cause notice thereof, together with the names of the Members appointed by the said Chief Civil Authority, to be given in a newspaper at each of the said stations, in which a newspaper is published, and at such of the stations in which no newspaper is published in such public manner as the said Chief Civil Authority shall think fit.

XVIII. In case it shall be found impracticable to obtain three elective Members to serve upon the Municipal Committee at any of the said stations, from refusal to act, failure of election or otherwise, or if any vacancy from any cause whatever shall happen before the month of December in any one year, in any of the said Municipal Committees, it shall be lawful for the Chief Civil Authority of the said Settlement at the station at which he shall then happen to be present, and at the other stations for the Resident Councillors thereof respectively, to nominate and appoint such other person or persons, being rate-payers, to be a Member or Members of the Municipal Committee, at each such station, and such appointment shall be as valid and effectual as if the person or persons so appointed had been elected in manner hereinbefore provided for.

XIX. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall enter upon their office on the first day of each year, and shall hold the same regularly for one year, or until their successors shall be duly constituted.

XX. Of the two Members of each of the said Municipal Committees to be appointed by the said Chief Civil Authority of the said Settlement under Section VIII. of this Act, one shall be the Resident Councillor of the station at which such Committee shall be constituted, and such Resident Councillor shall be the President of such Committee. In the absence of the President such other Member of the said Committee as shall be chosen by the Members present shall act as Chairman of the Meeting of the Committee. On all questions on which the Members of the Committee present are equally divided in opinion, the President, or, in his absence, the Chairman, shall have a second or casting vote. Three Members shall be necessary to constitute a Meeting.

XXI. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall fix and determine, at such time as they shall think fit, the rate or rates of assessment on houses and lands provided for in Sections II. and IV. of this Act, to be levied during each year, and the rate or rates so fixed and determined by them, shall be published for general information, and shall be the rate of assessment for the year indicated.

XXII. For the purpose of assessment under this Act the Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall fix the amount of the estimated rent of all houses, shops, and other buildings, and of all lands situated within the said settlement, in all cases where no rent is paid or payable.

XXIII. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall have power to remit or refund any part or portion of any assessment paid by any person on any house, shop or other building, levied under authority of this Act, in any case of partial occupancy in which it shall appear to such Committee expedient or desirable so to do.

XXIV. In order to enable the Municipal Committee to arrive at a fair valuation of the estimated rent of any lands liable to assessment under this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committee to require the proprietor, agent or person in charge of any lands, to furnish them with such returns of the nature, extent and expense of cultivation of such lands, and of the quantity and value of all produce derived therefrom, including sugar, rum, and molasses, but not including minerals, as the said Municipal Committee shall think fit; and for the like purpose it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committee, or any Member or Members thereof, or any person or persons appointed by them for that purpose, at any time, to enter on and inspect such lands, after having given two days previous notice of such their intention to the proprietor or person or persons in charge of such lands, and any proprietor or agent or person in charge of any such lands, who shall refuse or shall fail to furnish any such return for the space of one month from the day on which he shall have been required so to do, or who shall knowingly make a false or incorrect return, and any person who shall hinder, obstruct or prevent any Member of the Municipal Committee, or any person appointed by the said Municipal Committee as aforesaid, from entering upon or inspecting any such land, shall be liable, on conviction before two Justices of the Peace, to pay a fine, not exceeding two hundred dollars.

XXV. In case the proprietor, agent or person in charge of any land, or the tenant or occupier of any house, shop or other building, shall feel himself aggrieved by the valuation or amount of the estimated rent fixed by the Municipal Committee of any property for the assessment where, if he shall be chargeable under this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committee with the consent of the person so feeling himself aggrieved to refer the matter in dispute to the decision of three indifferent persons, one to be appointed by the said Municipal Committee, one by the person so aggrieved, and the third by the two persons so chosen, and the decision of a majority of such persons shall be final and binding on the said Municipal Committee, and also on the person so feeling himself aggrieved as aforesaid.

XXVI. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall appoint an officer under them, who shall be called the "collector of assessment and taxes," and such other officers as they may deem necessary for collecting or levying the assessment and taxes herein mentioned, and may assign such duties to such collector or other officers, and may prescribe such rules and take such security for the due execution of the duties of such collector or other officers as they may deem expedient; and such collector and other officers shall receive such salary or remuneration to be paid out of the said assessment and taxes, as the said Municipal Committee shall, from time to time, appoint. And the said Collector shall keep a register of all houses, shops and other buildings, and also of all lands liable to assessment under this Act, showing the road, street, or district, wherein the same are situated, the number, and name of the owner or occupier thereof, and the amount of the actual or estimated rent thereof respectively, with such other information as the Municipal Committee may direct, and such register shall be open to the inspection of any rate-payer, on such days, and at such times, as the Municipal Committee shall fix and determine. The said Municipal Committee shall have power to compound with the proprietor, agent, or person in charge of any lands, and with the tenant or occupier of any house, shop or other building for any assessment to which the same may be liable under this Act, and also to compound with any proprietor or person in charge of any vehicle or horse kept for the purpose of being let out to hire, for the payment of any tax to which such person may be liable under this Act.

XXVII. All monies levied, collected or received under and by virtue of this Act at the said stations, shall form a fund, which shall be called the "MUNICIPAL FUND" of the station at which the same shall have been so levied, collected or received, and the same shall be under the direction, management and control of the Municipal Committee of such station, and such Municipal Fund shall be applied at the said stations respectively, and to any dependency thereof, to the following purposes; namely, to the payment of the salaries of the collector of assessment and taxes, and the other Officers appointed for the collection of such assessment and taxes; to the payment and maintenance of an efficient Police; to the payment of the Office Establishments of the sitting magistrate and superintendent of Police (but not including the salary of any such sitting magistrate); to the constructing, renewing, repairing, cleansing and upholding all public roads, streets and other public thoroughfares, and public drains, wells, tanks, canals, channels and water-courses, and all public bridges, jetties, landing-places, quays, aqueducts, sluices, sewers and sluice gates; to the lighting and watching of the said stations; and to such other purposes as may be considered by the said Municipal Committee to be of public utility, or necessary to the comfort, security, protection and well-being of the inhabitants. Provided always that all roads and bridges leading to any Government building, or to any public building in the use or occupation of the Government of the said Settlement, or to any place of public worship or charitable Institution, recognized by Government, shall be deemed to be public roads and bridges within the meaning of this Act.

XXVIII. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall have power to call upon all persons residing therein to furnish them, at such time or times as they shall think fit, with a return or returns of the number of vehicles and animals specified in Section V. of this Act, belonging to such persons or in their possession, or kept or used by them, whether liable to be taxed or not, during any quarter or half-year for which such return shall be required; and any person who shall refuse, neglect or omit to make such return, or who shall knowingly give an incorrect or false return, shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

XXIX. Every proprietor of any carriage, palanquin, buggy, waggon, cart or other vehicle intended or kept for the purpose of being let to hire at any of the said stations, shall, between the first and fifteenth day of January, and between the first and fifteenth day of July of each year, attend with their respective vehicles at the office of the Collector of Assessment and Taxes, for the purpose of having such vehicle registered and numbered, and of receiving a license to let out the same to hire; and the said Collector is hereby required to grant a license for every such vehicle, and to register the same, and to cause a number to be painted in legible figures on some conspicuous part of such vehicle; and any person who shall neglect to appear and cause such vehicle to be so registered, and any person who shall let out any vehicle to hire without first obtaining such license, and any person who shall remove, alter, deface or destroy such number from any such vehicle without the consent and authority of such Collector, shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, on the complaint of the Collector for every such offence, be liable to pay a fine, not exceeding twenty dollars.

XXX. Any person who shall sell, transfer, or dispose of, or pledge or mortgage to another, and any person who shall receive in pledge or mortgage any license to let out any vehicle to hire, granted under the authority of this Act, shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding twenty dollars.

XXXI. Whenever any person, being the proprietor of any vehicle intended or kept for the purpose of being let out to hire, shall sell or dispose of any such vehicle, such person shall report the same, and deliver up his license to the Collector of Assessment and Taxes, and shall, together with the purchaser, attend to have such sale or transfer registered by such Collector, and no sale or transfer of any such vehicle shall be recognized or admitted in any Court of law, unless the same shall have been so registered.

XXXII. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Assessment and Taxes to grant a license to any proprietor of any vehicle intended or kept for the purpose of being let out to hire, and to register and number the same, at any time after the fifteenth day of January and fifteenth day of July in any year on the application of the proprietor thereof, provided the tax to which such vehicle may be liable shall have been first paid.

XXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Assessment and Taxes to refuse to grant a license, and to refuse to register and number any vehicle intended to be let out to hire, until the proprietor or person in charge thereof shall have paid the amount of taxes due by such person either for the said or any other vehicle or animal liable to be taxed under this Act.

XXXIV. When payment of any assessment or tax leviable under this Act shall not be duly made, the Collector of Assessment and Taxes may certify the same in writing to any Justice of the Peace, who shall thereupon summon the person or persons so in default to appear before him to answer such charge, and if upon such person or persons appearing, or failing to appear after having been duly summoned, such Justice shall be satisfied that due diligence has been used to obtain payment of such assessment or tax, and that the same has been improperly withheld, then such Justice shall or may issue a warrant under his hand for levying the amount of such assessment or tax, together with the costs of such proceedings, by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons so making default, or of any goods or chattels found in the house, shop or building charged, and any growing crops or produce or any goods or chattels found upon the land charged to whomsoever belonging; and in all such cases the overplus, if any, after deducting the amount adjudged, and the expenses of such seizure and sale shall be paid to the person or persons in whose possession such goods, chattels, growing crops or produce shall have been found.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Assessment and Taxes, under authority of the Municipal Committee in lieu of proceeding against defaulters by warrant as aforesaid, to sue any such defaulters in his own name as such Collector, for the recovery of any assessment or taxes in any Court or Courts of Justice to which such defaulters shall or may be amenable.

XXXVI. The Municipal Committee at each of the said stations shall, at the end of every year, draw up a statement, showing the nature and amount of the receipts and disbursements of the Municipal Fund for that year, and such statement shall be published for general information.

XXXVII. In consideration of the services to be performed by the Municipal Committee at each of the said stations, each elective Member thereof shall be exempted from the payment of assessment on the dwelling-house in his immediate occupation, and from the payment of all taxes under this Act for the year during which he shall serve as a Member of such Committee.

XXXVIII. In case any person shall feel himself aggrieved by any charge or demand for assessment or tax made upon him under authority of this Act, or by any act or proceeding of the Municipal Committee or Collector of Assessment and Taxes, or by any decision or order of any Justice of Peace, for anything alleged to be done or to be done by such person, in pursuance of this Act, such person shall be at liberty to appeal to the Court of Judicature of the said Settlement, by petition, stating shortly the grounds of his appeal to be verified by affidavit, and the said Court shall allow or refuse such appeal or proceed therein in such summary way as it shall deem meet. Provided always that no appeal shall be allowed by the said Court against any demand or charge for assessment or tax unless the amount of such assessment or tax shall have been first paid; nor shall an appeal be allowed in any case, unless the appellant shall have satisfied the said Court that he has given ten days' previous notice of his intention to appeal, to the person or persons against whose demand, charge, act or decision such appeal is preferred; and provided also that no appeal shall be heard by the said Court unless the same shall have been prosecuted within six months from the date on which such notice shall have been given.

XXXIX. In case of the non-payment of any fine imposed by any Justice of the Peace, in any case of conviction under this Act, it shall be lawful for such Justice, in his discretion, either to issue a warrant under his hand for levying the amount of such fine, by seizure and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so convicted, or to commit such person to Her Majesty's Jail, there to be kept and imprisoned for any period, not exceeding six calendar months.

XL. No charge or demand of assessment or tax made under authority of this Act, shall be impeached, effected, set aside or quashed by reason of any mistake in the name of any person liable to pay the same, or of anything chargeable with assessment or tax, or of any mistake in the amount of assessment or tax charged, provided the directions of this Act be in substance and effect complied with, and no proceedings or other matter or thing had or done under this Act shall be quashed or set aside for want of form in any Court or Courts of Justice.

XLI. No proceedings by seizure and sale of goods, chattels, growing crops or produce under authority of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant, inventory or other process relating thereto, nor shall he be deemed a trespasser from the beginning on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by such party.

XLII. All fines and forfeitures imposed, and all fees and poundage levied by the Court of Quarter Sessions, and by or before any Justice of the Peace of the said Settlement, shall be paid by the proper officer or officers receiving the same, to the Collector of Assessment and Taxes of the station at which the same shall have been imposed, levied or received, to be carried to the credit of the Municipal Fund of such station, and to be applied and used for the general purposes of this Act.

XLIII. This Act shall come into operation on the day of 18 ; but the acts and proceedings of the Municipal Committee and the Collector of Assessments at each of the said stations, appointed under Act No. IX. of 1848, shall nevertheless be good and valid, and they shall continue in office until their respective successors shall be constituted or appointed under the provisions of this Act.

XLIV. In construing this Act all words used in the singular number shall be held to include several persons and things, and words in the plural number shall be held to include the singular number; and all words importing the masculine gender shall extend and be applied to females as well as males, unless there is something in the context inconsistent with such construction.

Ordered, that the draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said draft be reconsidered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 27th day of August next.

Port William, Home Department, Legislative,
The 27th May, 1853.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 27th of May 1853:

ACT No. — OF 1853.

An Act to confer certain powers on the Municipal Committees for improving the several Stations in the Straits of Malacca.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Municipal Committee of each of the stations of Pinang, Singapore and Malacca should be invested with the powers hereinafter mentioned; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

I. The said Municipal Committees may, subject to confirmation or disallowance by the Governor of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, nominate, appoint and employ, respectively, such surveyors, inspectors and other necessary officers and servants, as may be necessary or proper for the execution of the powers hereby vested in them; and such surveyors, inspectors, officers and servants shall receive such salaries as to the Governor of the Straits shall seem meet.

II. The management and control over all the streets and roads within the said stations of the said Settlement, existing at the time of the passing of this Act, and of all parts of the said stations which shall hereafter become streets and roads, and the pavements and other materials therein, and all erections and buildings, materials, implements or other things provided for the said streets and roads by or under the authority of the Governor of the Straits, or by the Magistrates of the Settlements, or by the said Municipal Committees; and also the management and control of the public tanks, aqueducts, and canals, and of all sewers and drains, whether public or private, now made or hereafter to be made, within the said stations, are hereby vested in the said Municipal Committees for the purposes of this Act.

III. The said Municipal Committees, by and with the consent of the Governor of the Straits, may lay out, make, build and construct streets within the said stations, and may alter and widen narrow streets, regard being had to the compensation of owners of lands, which may be required to be vested in the said Municipal Committees for any such purposes.

IV. The said Municipal Committees, with the consent and approbation of the Governor of the Straits, shall pave and water such of the public streets, existing in the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, or at any future time, as they shall think fit, and it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to excavate and provide convenient tanks or runs of water through the said stations, and to sink wells, and lay, erect, and place pipes, gutters, conduits, and pumps, in any of the said streets, and may remove and alter the same, when and as the said Municipal Committees, respectively, shall think proper.

V. The said Municipal Committees, by and with the consent of the said Governor of the Straits, may, by agreement or in conformity with the provisions of Act XXII. of 1847, purchase, or take absolutely, or on lease, for such terms as they may think fit, any water-works, streams of water, lands, fixtures or other property, which the said Municipal Committees may deem it necessary to purchase or take for any work or purpose, which they are required or authorized to do and execute under this Act, or the Act No. of 185; and when the said Municipal Committees take and purchase any lands for the purposes of this Act, otherwise than with the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, they shall, in exercising the powers so given, be subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in the said Act, No. XXII. of 1847, and the said

Municipal Committees shall make to the owners and occupiers of, and all other parties interested in any such lands taken for the purposes of this Act, full compensation for the value of the lands so taken, and for all damages sustained by such owners, occupiers and other parties by reason of the exercise as regards such lands, of the powers vested in the Municipal Committees by this Act, and the amount of such compensation shall be determined in the manner provided by the said Act, No. XXII. of 1847, for determining questions of compensation with regard to lands purchased, or taken under the provisions thereof: and all provisions of the said Act, No. XXII. of 1847, shall be applicable to determine the amount of any such compensation, and to enforce the payment or other satisfaction thereof. Provided, and it is enacted, that on the application of the provisions of Act No. XXII. of 1847, to any of the purposes of this Act, the same shall be read and interpreted, as if, instead of any word or words therein used, importing a Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Magistrate or Magistrates of Calcutta, words had been used designating a Justice or Justices of the Peace of the said Settlement, and as if instead of any words therein used, importing the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, or any Judge or Judges of the said Court, words had been used designating the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, or the Recorder of the said Court; and as if instead of any word or words therein used importing the Sheriff or Coroner of Calcutta, words had been used importing the Sheriff or Coroner of the said Settlement, or any deputy to be appointed by such Sheriff; and as if instead of words importing a jury of Calcutta, words had been used in the said Act importing a jury of the said Settlement, or any of the said stations there.

VI. The Municipal Committees, by and with the consent of the Governor of the Straits, may sell or dispose of any lands or other property vested in or acquired by them under the powers herein contained, which it may appear to the Municipal Committees may be proper to sell or disposed of, and for completing and carrying out any such sale of lands into effect, the Municipal Committees may make and execute a conveyance of the lands sold and disposed of as aforesaid, unto the purchaser, or as he shall direct; and such conveyance shall be under the hands of three of the Members of the Municipal Committees, and under the seal of the Municipal Committees, and a receipt, under the hands of three of the Members of the Municipal Committees, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser of any such lands for the purchase money in such receipt expressed to be received, and the money to arise from such sale shall be applied to such of the purposes of this Act as the Municipal Committees shall think fit.

VII. The said Municipal Committees may, from time to time, as they shall see fit, widen, deepen, embank, alter, arch over, amend, clean and scour out all or any of the sewers or drains, within the said stations as may be necessary, and also cleanse and drain off into any sewers or drains, or otherwise abate all stagnant pools, ditches, tanks and other receptacles of foul water and filth existing within the said stations, whether the same be the private property of any person or persons, or otherwise; and the said Municipal Committees, if they shall think fit, may take up, stop, fill in, and discontinue any sewers or drains, which they shall deem useless or unnecessary; provided, always that the expenses incurred in respect of any such works done or executed on the private property of any person, if not defrayed by such person on demand thereof, may be recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattles of such person; and any two of the said Members of the Municipal Committees may issue their warrant of distress accordingly.

VIII. Every Municipal Committee and the Power to Municipal Committees to enter, examine and lay open houses, lands, &c., for that purpose Compensation in certain cases.

Surveyor to the Municipal Committees, with such subordinate Officers or persons as they may require, shall, when it shall be necessary or convenient for the purpose of making any survey or examination of any sewers or drains, or of making or repairing, or cleansing any sewers, drains, or works within the said stations, or of carrying into execution any of the powers entrusted to the Municipal Committees by this Act have full power and authority, at all reasonable hours in the day time, to enter, examine and lay open, or to direct their subordinate officers to enter, examine, and lay open, any house, building or other erection, or any lands, without being liable to any action at law, or suit in equity, or any other legal proceedings or molestation whatsoever, for, or on account of such entry, examination, or works, or of any thing done or to be done in any part of such house, building, erection or land, in pursuance of this Act. Provided always, that except in cases of emergency, none of the persons above mentioned shall enter, examine or lay open any house, or building or other erection, or lands which may be occupied at the time, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without previously giving the said occupier twenty-four hours notice of their intended entry, and of the object thereof. Provided also, that compensation shall be made for any damage occasioned by such entry to any person other than the owner or occupiers of any land or building in respect of such any private drain or sewer, in the state of damage shall be inspected, cleansed or repaired, and other than the owners or occupiers of any premises where any nuisance may exist, and other than the person who may have caused such nuisance; and provided also that in case no nuisance shall be found to exist in or on the house, building or other erection, or lands so entered, examined and laid open as aforesaid, the said Municipal Committees shall, out of the rates and taxes aforesaid, cause the said house, building or other erection, or lands, to be restored to the same state and condition in all respect as the same were in before they were so entered, examined or laid open.

IX. If any house, building or wall, or any thing affixed thereon, within the limits of the said stations be deemed by the Municipal Committees, or their Surveyor, to be in a ruinous state, or badly built, or likely to fall, and also dangerous to passengers, or the occupiers of neighbouring buildings, such Surveyor shall immediately cause a proper board or notice to be put up, for the protection of passengers, and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner of such house, building, or wall, or other thing, if he be known and resident within the said limits, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or other thing, as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure such house, building, wall, or other thing, within the space of three days after such notice has been given or put up as aforesaid, and complete the same as speedily as the nature of the case will admit, the said Municipal Committees shall, with all convenient speed, cause all or so much of such house, building, wall or other thing, as shall be in a ruinous condition, or badly built, or likely to fall, and also dangerous as aforesaid, to be taken down, repaired, rebuilt or otherwise secured in such manner as shall be requisite; and all the expenses of putting up every such fence, and of taking down, repairing, rebuilding or securing such building, wall, or other thing, shall be paid by the owner thereof, if such owner can be found within the said limits, and if, on demand of the expenses aforesaid, he neglect or refuse to pay the same, then such expenses may be levied by distress on the goods and chattles of the owner of the said house, building, wall, or other thing, and any two Members of the Municipal Committees may issue their warrant of distress accordingly.

X. If any such house, building, wall, or other thing, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Municipal Committees may sell the materials thereof: or so much of the same as shall be pulled down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred in respect of such house, building, wall, or other thing, and the Municipal Committees shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such house, building, wall, or other thing, on demand; nevertheless the Municipal Committees, although they sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale, as are hereinbefore given to them for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

XI. The said Municipal Committees, by and Power to Municipal Committees to make canals, aqueducts, sewers, drains, &c.

with consent of the Governor of the Straits, may construct, make, and lay, or cause to be constructed, made, and laid, such reservoirs, canals, aqueducts, channels, tanks, sewers, drains, bridges, banks, conduits, machinery, engines, waste-gates, stop-gates, stop-rocks, sluices, tunnels, water-pipes, and other works, as shall, in their opinion, be necessary and proper for obtaining water and supplying the same to the said stations, and for the effectual draining and cleansing of the said stations, and for the properly flushing and cleansing out such sewers, in, under, or across all or any of the streets therein, whether dedicated to the public use or not, and if needful through and across all under-ground cellars, and vaults which they may find under any of the said streets, doing as little damage as may be; and also to cause such and so many risers and openings to be made or left in the sides of the said sewers, as will be sufficient for the making or branching any drain or drains from any or all of the houses built, and which may probably be built, adjoining or near thereto into any of the said sewers, as the said Municipal Committees shall think necessary for that purpose; and in case it shall be found necessary for completing any of the aforesaid works to build, carry, or continue the same in, into, through or over any enclosed lands, or other place not being a public way, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to build, carry, or continue the same in, into, through, or over the said lands or other places accordingly, and the said Municipal Committees shall cause such sewers to communicate with and empty themselves into any public river, stream, canal or water-course, whether within or without the said stations, or shall cause the refuse from such sewers to be conveyed by an appropriate channel to the most convenient site for its deposit, collection, and sale, and its application as manure for agricultural purposes or otherwise, as they shall deem most expedient, but so that the same shall in no case become a public nuisance or annoyance to the neighbourhood.

XII. If any building within the said settlements, by reason of abandonment, or of disputed ownership or other cause, shall remain untenanted, and thereby become a receptacle for thieves and vagabonds, and be complained of by the neighbours as a nuisance, the Municipal Committees shall cause notice in writing to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of such building, requiring those concerned therein, whoever they may be, to take down or to secure the said building, in such manner, as that strangers may not have access thereto; and if such notice be not complied with within a reasonable time from the date of such notice, the said Municipal Committees shall cause the necessary work to be executed, and all expenses incurred by the Municipal Committees in the execution of such work, whereby the nuisance caused by such building may have been removed, shall be levied in the manner hereinbefore provided in Section IX. of this Act.

XIII. The Municipal Committees shall cause all hedges, lining public roads and foot paths to be cut and clipped, so that they may not exceed a height of six feet or overhang the road in a manner to form obstructions to the traffic thereon, and to damage the said roads, and shall give notice to owners and proprietors of such hedges to reduce the same when requisite, and in the event of such notice not being complied with, within one week from the date of such notice, the Municipal Committees or their collector may cause the said hedges to be cut and clipped, in the manner required, and all expenses incurred in so cutting and clipping shall be paid by the owners and proprietors of the said hedges, and in the event of the said expenses not being paid by the said owners or proprietors within three days from the date of demand, the same shall be levied by distress, on the goods and chattels of the said owners, and proprietors.

XIV. The Municipal Committees shall cause to be exactly defined the proper limits of the towns of Penang, Singapore and Malacca, and shall cause a notification to be published in the local papers, so defining such limits, and from the date of the passing of this Act, the said Municipal Committees shall prevent any dwelling-house, shed or other building, which shall hereafter be erected within such limits, from being covered with attaps, leaves or grass, and the said Municipal Committees, or their collector, may cause the coverings of any such buildings so erected, after the passing of this Act, and so covered, as aforesaid, to be removed at the expense of the person or persons so covering the same, such expenses to be recovered in the manner provided by Section IX. of this Act.

XV. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, their collector, surveyor, or other officer, subject to the restrictions in this Act contained, to enter upon the lands of any corporation or person adjoining to, or being within the distance of one hundred yards of the works by this Act authorized to be made, or any part thereof, for the purpose of depositing upon such lands, or any part thereof, any soil, gravel, sand, lime, brick, stone, or other materials, or for any other purposes connected with the formation of the said works, without making any previous payment, tender, or deposit, the said Municipal Committees, their collector, surveyor, or other officer, doing as little damage as may be in the exercise of the several powers hereby granted to them, and making compensation for such temporary occupation or temporary damage of the said lands to the owners and occupiers thereof, from time to time, and as often as any such temporary occupation shall be taken or any such temporary damage done, and making compensation to the owners also for the permanent injury (if any) to such lands; and in case the parties differ respecting the amount of the compensation, or the respective shares of several claimants of compensation, then and in every such case the said disputes respectively shall be settled and adjusted by arbitration, or by the verdict of a jury summoned and assembled in manner provided in Act No. XXII. of 1847, to be interpreted in the manner pointed out by Section V. of this Act. Provided always that before the said Municipal Committees make such temporary use as aforesaid of the land adjoining or lying near to the said works, they give fourteen days notice of such their intent to the owners and occupiers of such lands, and shall separate and set apart by sufficient fences, so much of the lands as shall be required to be used as aforesaid from the other lands adjoining thereto.

XVI. The said Municipal Committees, when executing any works hereby authorized to be made, shall, at their own expense, make and provide a sufficient number of convenient roads, ways, watering-places, wells, water-courses, drains and channels, for the irrigation and for the use of the adjoining lands, and for irrigating the same in those parts where the present roads, ways, watering-places, wells, water-courses, drains, and channels shall and may be taken away, or interrupted, injured, or rendered inconvenient or useless by reason of the execution of the said works, and in case of any difference arising between the said Municipal Committees and the owners of such adjoining lands, such difference shall be settled by arbitration, or by the verdict of a jury summoned and assembled in manner provided in Act No. XXII. of 1847, to be interpreted as aforesaid.

XVII. The said Municipal Committees shall make full compensation out of the rates and taxes to be levied by them to all persons sustaining any damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested in the Municipal Committees, or their officers or servants, under and by virtue of this Act.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to direct any prosecution before any Court of Justice of the Peace for any public nuisance whatsoever, which shall be permitted, suffered, or committed, within the said station, and to order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties, and for the punishment of any persons offending against the provisions of this Act, and to direct and order the expenses of such prosecutions and other proceedings to be paid and borne by and out of the Funds placed at their disposal, under the provisions of this or any other Act.

XIX. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, if they shall not think fit to take any other proceedings prescribed by this Act, to prefer any bill of indictment or information, or to take any other proceedings against any person who shall obstruct or molest the said Municipal Committees, or their collector, surveyor, or other officer or servant, or any workman, or other person employed by them in the performance and execution of their or his duty, under, or by virtue, or in consequence of this Act, or who shall steal, take, or carry away, or wilfully deface or injure any property, article, or thing belonging to the said Municipal Committees, and in every such case it shall be sufficient to state generally the property, article, or thing, in respect of which such proceeding shall have been taken, to be the property of the said Municipal Committees.

It shall be lawful for any of the Municipal Committees, their collector, or their surveyor, or any person employed by them, and any person or persons whom he or they shall think fit to have or their assistance, without any summons or warrant, or other authority than this Act, to seize and detain any unknown person who shall commit any offence against the provisions of this Act, and to take him immediately to a Police station, where he shall be detained in default of bail until he can be taken before any Justice of the Peace, who is hereby required to proceed and Act with respect to such offender according to the provisions of this Act.

XXI. The Municipal Committees, or any one of their Members, or any person appointed by them for that purpose, may at all reasonable times, with or without assistants, enter into and inspect any market, building, shop, stall, or place, kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, or vegetables, or as a slaughter-house, and may examine any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables, which may be therein; and in case any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetables, appear to be intended for the food of man, and to be unfit for such food, may seize, remove and destroy the same at the expense of the owner thereof, or the owner, occupier, or farmer of any such public market, bazar, or slaughter-house, or private shop, or stall within the stations wherein the same shall be exposed, or allowed to be exposed for sale.

XXII. The Municipal Committees, or their surveyor, shall have full power and authority to remove or order the removal of any wall, fence, rail, post, or other obstruction or encroachment erected or being without lawful excuse in any street, or in or over any drain, sewer, or aqueduct within the said stations.

XXIII. When any private tank, or low marshy ground shall appear to the Municipal Committees to be offensive to the neighbourhood or unwholesome, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to require, by notice in writing, the owner thereof to cleanse or fill up the same, and if the said tank shall remain uncleansed or not filled up for seven days after such notice, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to enter into and upon the adjoining lands, and to cleanse or fill up the said tank as they shall think fit, and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such tank, to be recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXIV. The Municipal Committees may affix on or to the wall of any house or compound, or in or to any wall within the said stations, as they shall think fit, any board or metal plate to indicate the name of the street in which such house, compound, or wall is situate, or any lamp for the purpose of lighting the street.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, or their subordinate officers, as they shall think fit, to kill and destroy, or to order to be killed and destroyed, all dogs that may be found loose in the said streets, and not accompanying their owners or some person in charge of them.

XXVI. The said Municipal Committees shall, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, keep in good and sufficient repair every street now or at any future time existing in the said stations.

XXVII. When any of the streets, sewers, or drains in the said stations are being made, or shall be under repair, the Municipal Committees, or their surveyor, or other subordinate officer, shall take proper precautions against danger by shoring up and protecting the adjoining houses, and shall fix and place, or cause to be fixed and placed, such and so many bars, chains, or posts across or in any of the said streets to prevent the passing and repassing of carriages, carts or other vehicles, cattle or horses, during the time of such works and repairs being carried on as shall be necessary, and the said Municipal Committees, and their said surveyor, shall cause any sewer, or drain or other works, during the construction or repair thereof by them, to be well and sufficiently lighted during the night to prevent accidents.

XXVIII. The said Municipal Committees, so far as the funds at their disposal will admit, shall provide lamps for lighting such parts of the said stations as the said Municipal Committees shall consider to require the same, and shall keep the said lamps in fit order for public use, and shall keep and employ a sufficient number of persons to cleanse, prepare, repair, and light the same, and shall also, from time to time, as shall be required, increase or otherwise alter the number and situation of the said lamps, as to them shall appear necessary for the lighting of the said station.

XXIX. The said Municipal Committees, and their said surveyor and other officers, shall cause all the public streets of the said stations, together with the foot pavements, or foot-paths therein from time to time to be properly swept and cleansed, and all dust, dirt, soil, ashes, rubbish and filth of every sort, which may be found thereon, to be collected and removed therefrom at convenient hours and times, and shall cause all or any of the privies, cess-pools, and drains, within the said stations to be cleansed and emptied in a sufficient and proper manner by the owners or occupiers of the premises; and the said surveyor, or other subordinate officer of the Municipal Committees, shall give such orders and directions to the owners and occupiers aforesaid as to the said surveyor or other officer as aforesaid, acting under the orders and control of the said Municipal Committees, shall appear proper and necessary, and the said Municipal Committees may, in their discretion, order and direct where, and in what places, and how, and in what manner, the dust, dirt, soil, night-soil, ashes, rubbish and filth collected in the said stations shall be deposited and disposed of.

XXX. The owners of any private drains in the said stations shall by providing proper traps or other coverings, or by ventilation, or by such other ways and means as shall be practicable for that purpose, prevent as far as possible the effluvia of sewers and drains from exhaling from gully-holes, gratings, or any other openings whatsoever of drains or sewers, in streets or other places; and in case the owner of any private sewer or drain shall neglect or delay so to do, the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees shall give him notice to prevent as far as possible the effluvia of such sewer or drain from so exhaling, and if the same shall not be done by such owner within ten days after such notice shall have been given to him, the said surveyor shall forthwith provide and apply proper traps or other coverings, or such other means as aforesaid, so as effectually to prevent such effluvia from exhaling, and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such sewer or drain, to be recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXXI. If upon the representation of the surveyor of the Municipal Committees, and after inquiry by such other ways and means as the Municipal Committees may think fit to direct, the said Municipal Committees shall certify, such certificate to be published in the local papers of the station, that any burial-ground situated within the said stations is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, or that any church, or other place of public worship within the station, is dangerous to the health of persons frequenting the same, by reason of the state of the vaults or graves within the walls of or underneath the same, and that sufficient means of interment exist within a convenient distance from such burial-ground, church, or place of public worship, it shall not be lawful, after a time to be named in such certificate, to bury or permit, or suffer to be buried any further corpses or coffin in, within, or under the ground, church, or place of worship to which the certificate relates, except in so far as may be allowed by such certificate; and whosoever after notice of such certificate buries, or causes, permits, or suffers to be buried, any corpse or coffin contrary to this enactment, shall for every such offence be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty, not exceeding five hundred Company's Rupees.

XXXII. No vault or grave shall be constructed or made within the walls of, or underneath any church or other place of public worship built in the said stations after the passing of this Act, and no burial-ground shall be made or formed within the said stations after the passing of this Act, without the consent of the Municipal Committees first had and obtained, and whosoever shall bury, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried, any corpse or coffin in any vault, grave or burial-ground constructed, made, or formed contrary to this enactment, shall, for every such offence, be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty not exceeding Company's Rupees five hundred.

XXXIII. No writ or process shall be issued out against or served upon any Municipal Committees or any collector, surveyor, or other officer, or person whatsoever, acting under the direction of the Municipal Committee.

XXXIV. No writ or process shall be issued out against or served upon any Municipal Committees or any collector, surveyor, or other officer, or person whatsoever, acting under the direction of the Municipal Committee, after the expiration of one month after the date of the notice in writing shall have been delivered to the Municipal Committee, or left at his office or place of abode, or left at the residence of his attorney or agent in the cause, and upon the trial of any such action the plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action except such as is stated in the notice so delivered, and unless such notice be proved, the Court shall find for the defendant, and every such action shall be brought or commenced within three calendar months next after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards; and if any party shall have committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceedings in the execution of this Act, or by virtue of any power or authority hereby given, and if before action brought in respect thereof such party shall make tender of sufficient amends to the party injured, such last mentioned party shall not recover in any such action when brought; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action, by leave of the Court where such action shall be pending, at any time before issue joined, to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court.

XXXIV. No matter or thing done, or contract entered into by the Municipal Committees, or any one of their Members, or by any collector, surveyor, or other officer or person whomsoever, acting under the direction of the Municipal Committees, shall, if the matter or thing were done, or the contract were entered into bona fide, for the purpose of executing this Act, subject them or any of them personally to any action, liability, claim, or demand whatsoever, and any expense incurred by any such Municipal Committees, collector, surveyor, or other officer, or person acting as last aforesaid, shall be borne and repaid out of the funds under the control of the Municipal Committees.

XXXV. All the streets existing within the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, and all parts of the said stations, which hereafter become streets, and also the pavements, stones and other materials therein, and all erections and building materials, implements or other things provided for the said streets, by or under the authority of the Government of the Settlements, or by the Magistrates of the said stations, or by the said Municipal Committees, and also all public sewers and drains within the said stations, together with all works, materials and things therewith connected and belonging, existing in the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, or which shall hereafter be constructed and made therein by the said Municipal Committees or otherwise; and also all canals, aqueducts, conduits, tunnels, water-works, cisterns, pumps, pipes, tanks, reservoirs and wells, which now are or shall hereafter be provided, or lawfully applied to public use, and which are not the property of any private person, together with all buildings, engines, works, materials and things therewith connected, existing in the said stations at the time of the passing of this Act, or which shall hereafter be constructed therein at the costs of the said Municipal Committees or otherwise; and also all lands lying and belonging to public tanks and ground alongside of any street, drain or aqueduct, not the property of any private person, and also all lands not legally appropriated, and also all dirt, dust, dry and liquid filth, ashes and rubbish to be collected from the streets, houses, premises, sewers, and cess-pools and elsewhere within the said stations, shall be the property of, and are hereby vested in, the said Municipal Committees as Trustees for the purposes of this Act.

XXXVI. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person which is, or, but for this Act, would be deemed and adjudged to be, a nuisance at Common Law; nor to exempt any person guilty of a nuisance at Common Law, from prosecution or action in respect thereof. Provided always, that if any person convicted of an offence under this Act, shall have paid the whole amount adjudged to be paid under such conviction, and the costs thereof, or shall have suffered imprisonment in respect of such offence, in every such case he shall be released from all further or other criminal proceedings for the same offence.

XXXVII. It shall be lawful for any person at his own expense, to make or branch any drain into any of the sewers vested in the said Municipal Committees, or authorized to be made by virtue of this Act, or otherwise acquired by the said Municipal Committees; such drain being made of such a size and in such a manner of communication in all respects as the said surveyor of the said Municipal Committees shall direct, and for that purpose to take up and remove, with the permission of the Municipal Committees, so much of the pavement and other materials of any street as may be required, unless the said Municipal Committees shall consent and agree, which they are hereby authorized to do, to form so much and such portion of such drain as shall lead from the point of communication in such sewer to the extremity of such street, and in case any person shall make or branch any drain into any of the said sewers, so vested in the said Municipal Committees, or authorized to be made, under, and by virtue of this Act, of a different size or in a different manner and form of communication than shall be directed or appointed by the said surveyor, every person so offending shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding fifty Rupees, and in default of payment shall be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month; and the said Justice shall order the said person so offending to alter such drain as required by the said Municipal Committees within ten days, and in default the said Municipal Committees shall, at the expense of the maker of such drain, alter or destroy the same as they shall think fit; and in case the expense of making such alteration or destruction shall not be paid by the owner or maker of such drain, the expense incurred thereby shall be recovered in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to contract and agree with the owners of any houses or other tenements within the said stations, that any drains required to be constructed and made by such owners shall be constructed and made by the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees, and the cost price of making such drains (as certified by the said surveyor of the said Municipal Committees), shall be repaid by such owners to the said Municipal Committees, and in default of such payment the same may be recovered in the manner hereinafter provided.

XXXIX. Before beginning to dig or lay the foundations of any new house, building, or wall, within the said stations, or to rebuild any house, building, or wall therein, contiguous or near to any street, and not being within the compound wall of any premises, and also before making any sewer or drain for the purpose of draining water directly or indirectly from any land or tenement into any sewer under the jurisdiction of the said Municipal Committees, fourteen clear days notice in writing shall be given to the Collector to the said Municipal Committees, by delivering the same to him, or leaving it at his office, by the person intending to build or rebuild such house, building, or wall, or to make such sewer or drain; and every foundation of any such house, building, or wall, and the drains within the same, shall be laid at such level as the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees shall direct, and so as that no part of the said house, building, or wall shall project or encroach into or over the adjoining street, drain, or aqueduct, and so as that the said drains may be properly built with reference to the adjoining public drains, and every such branch-drain shall be made in such direction, manner, and form, and of such materials, and workmanship as the said surveyor shall order; and the building or rebuilding of any such house, building, or wall shall be under the survey and control of the said Municipal Committees, and their surveyor, so far as may be necessary to prevent any projection or encroachment in or over any street, drain, or aqueduct, and to insure that the level of the drains within such house, building, or wall shall be properly built with reference to the public drains; and in default of such notice as aforesaid, or if such building or drain shall be begun, or made without or in any respect contrary to any order of the said surveyor, or of the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees to cause such building to be demolished, and to cause such drain to be rebuilt, amended, destroyed, or re-made as the case may require, and to cause the expenses thereof to be levied and repaid to them from and by the owner thereof in manner herein-after provided.

XI. Every person, upon conviction before any Justice of the Peace, on the testimony of one or more credible witnesses, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than fifty rupees, or in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one month, who, within the limits of the said stations, shall commit any one of the following offences; (that is to say—).

1. Every person who shall throw or put, or cause or order, or allow his servants to throw or put, or from whose premises shall be thrown or put, any dirt, dung, mud, dust, ashes, garden or stable refuse, or rubbish of any kind, or the carcass of any dog or other animal, or any flesh or other part of an animal, or any animal matter, upon any of the public streets, except between the hours of midnight and seven in the morning.

2. Every person, who shall throw or put, or cause or allow to be thrown or put, or from whose premises shall be thrown or put, any broken bottles, glass, china or crockery-ware upon or into any street, drain or aqueduct.

3. Every person, who shall keep, or allow to be kept, for more than twenty-four hours, any dirt, dung, mud, dust, bones, ashes, night-soil, or other rubbish of a perishable and noisome kind in or upon any house, out-house, yard, or ground occupied by him.

4. Every person, being the owner or occupier of any private tatty, drain, sewer, cess-pool, tannery, or other receptacle of filth, who shall neglect or refuse to keep the same in a clean and proper state, or to employ proper means to remove any noisome smell or the filth therefrom, or who shall expose the contents of such privy to the view of the passers by in the street.

5. Every person, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut, building, or lands, whether tenanted or otherwise, who shall suffer the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation.

6. Every person, who shall cause or allow the water of any sink, sewer or drain, or other offensive liquid matter belonging to him, or running through or being on his land, to run, drain, or be carried into or upon any of the streets, tanks, aqueducts, or reservoirs, belonging to the Municipal Committees, or who shall commit or cause any act whatsoever, whereby the water provided for the domestic use of the inhabitants of the stations shall be in any way fouled or corrupted, or who shall throw or put, or cause, or order or allow his servants to throw or put, or from whose premises shall be thrown or put, any dirt, dung, mud, dust, ashes, night-soil, garden or stable refuse or other rubbish, into any of the public sewers or drains, or into any reservoirs, tanks, aqueducts, or other water-works, belonging to the Municipal Committees.

7. Every person, who shall have or keep any common tatty, privy, or urinal, on any ground owned or occupied by him within the stations, without a license first had from the Municipal Committees, who are hereby authorized to grant the same under the hand of their Collector such license shall be granted for one year, and shall be renewed or not every year according to the discretion of the Municipal Committees.

8. Every person being the owner or farmer of any licensed tatty, privy, or urinal within the said stations, who shall suffer such tatty or urinal to be kept in a filthy and unclean state, or shall neglect to employ proper means for cleaning and regulating it.

9. Every person who shall wantonly, or wilfully destroy, injure or deface any of the lamps or lamp posts in the said streets, or extinguish any light therein, or abstract or take away from any of the said lamps, any oil or other matter or thing therein, or any part thereof, without the order of the said Municipal Committees, or of their said surveyor, or who shall wantonly or wilfully destroy, injure, or deface any board bearing on it the name of any street, or the number of any building or land within the said stations, or any notice of the said Municipal Committees fixed or posted up in any place.

10. Every person who shall displace, take up or make any alteration in the pavements, flags, stones, fences, posts, or other materials of any foot or carriage-way in any street, without the consent in writing of the said Municipal Committees, or of their said surveyor, or who shall cause any obstruction to, or make any encroachments upon, any street or upon any sewer, drain, aqueduct, or space of ground alongside a street, drain or aqueduct.

11. Every person who shall take down or remove any fences or boards, or any bars, chains, or posts erected by the said Municipal Committees, or extinguish any light attached to or connected with the said fences, boards, bars, chains, or posts, without the authority or consent of the said Municipal Committees, or their surveyor.

12. Every person, who shall carry or cause to be carried in carts, pots, handles or other vessels any night-soil or urine, or other noisome or offensive matter through the public streets except, between the hours of midnight and eight in the morning, or who shall carry or cause to be carried any night-soil, or urine in such manner that any offensive smell or drainings issue therefrom, or who shall place or set down in any public place any vessel containing night-soil or urine, or who shall carry, or cause the same to be carried in any other than covered carts or vessels, or who shall throw or deposit any night-soil in or upon any street.

13. Every person, who shall bathe or wash any part of his person in any public street, or upon, or in any of the tanks, reservoirs, aqueducts, water-works, or drains, belonging to the Municipal Committees, except in such of the said tanks, reservoirs, aqueducts, water-works, or drains, as the Municipal Committees shall set apart for that purpose.

14. Every person, who shall wash or cause to be washed any horse, dog, or other animal, or any cloth, wearing apparel, leather or skin of any animal, or any foul or offensive thing on any street, in or near any tanks, reservoirs, aqueducts, water-works, or drains, belonging to the Municipal Committees, or on or in the road adjoining thereto, except in such of the said tanks, reservoirs, aqueducts, water-works, or drains as the said Municipal Committees shall set apart for that purpose.

15. Every person who shall wilfully and indecently expose his person, or who shall commit nuisance in any of the public streets.

16. Every person, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut, or building within the stations, which has a drain on the same side of the street, wherein such house, hut, or building is situate, who shall cause or allow any water, or liquid matter from or on such house, hut, or building to flow, or be carried through pipes, gutters, water-spouts, or other means on any part of any public street, or on any place but his own land, or the public drain, or who shall refuse or neglect to remove, or alter the direction of any such pipe, gutter, or water-spout, after the expiration of ten days notice for that purpose given by the surveyor of the said Municipal Committees; and any person, being the owner or occupier of any house, hut or building in the said stations, which has not a drain on the same side of the street as such house, hut, or building, who shall convey the water from the said house, hut, or building in, or upon any public street, through pipes or water-spouts, the mouths of which shall be higher than two feet from the ground.

17. Every person being the owner or occupier of any house, hut or building, who shall cause or allow any verandah, balcony, sun-shade, or other part of any house, hut, or building, to overhang and project into any public street or public place, at a height of less than eleven feet from the level of the roadway, or to a distance exceeding four feet from the house, and who shall refuse or neglect to take down and remove such verandah, balcony, sun-shade or other projection after the expiration of fifteen days notice for that purpose given by the surveyor.

18. Every person who shall, after the passing of this Act, erect or set up any verandah, balcony, sun-shade, or other projection of any kind which may overhang and project into the road at any height, and to any distance, without license first obtained from the Municipal Committees, under the hand of their surveyor.

19. Every person who shall wash or cleanse, or cause or order or allow his servants to wash or cleanse any carriage or other conveyance, or horse or other animal, or whose carriage or other conveyance, or horse or other animal shall be washed or cleansed in any public street or other public place.

20. Every person, who shall place, set up, or build in any public street within the stations any board, scaffolding, post, bar, rail, boards, or other thing by way of inclosure for the purpose of making mortar, or of depositing, sifting, screening, or stacking any bricks, stone, lime, sand, or any other materials, for building or repairing any house or other building, or for any other purpose whatsoever, without license first obtained from the Municipal Committees, who are hereby authorized to grant such license, under the hand of their surveyor, or who shall set up or build the same in any other manner, or allow or cause the same to be continued for any longer time than shall be allowed or expressed in such license, or who shall cause or allow any of the building materials or other things to extend beyond the distance expressed in the license.

21. Every person who shall have been allowed by the Municipal Committees to set up any scaffolding, or deposit any bricks, stone, lime, sand, or other building materials on the public streets, and who shall not cause a light to be set up every night from sunset to sunrise on every such erection or obstruction.

22. Every person who shall build any wall or erect any fence or obstruction, or set up any post, so as to be an obstruction in any street, whether the proprietary right to such street shall be in dispute or not.

23. Every person who shall set out, place, or expose, or cause to be set out, placed or exposed, whether for sale or otherwise, any stall, booth, show-board, basket, cask, or nient, fish vegetable, fruit, groceries, or any other merchandize, or goods of any kind, or any stone, bricks, earthen-ware, hard-ware, timber, or any other thing whatsoever, whether animal, vegetable, or mineral, in, or upon any of the public streets, or on, or over any drain, sewer or aqueduct.

24. Every person who shall sift or clean, or cause to be sifted or cleansed, or exposed for any other purpose any cotton, grain, seeds, rice, coffee, onions, or any other vegetable matter whatsoever, or who shall sift brick-dust or lime on any public street, or on, or over any public drain, sewer, reservoir, or aqueduct.

25. Every person who shall keep or leave any carriage, cart, hackery or other conveyance, or any horse, ox or other animal, on any public street, or on, or over any public drain, sewer, or aqueduct, so as to cause an obstruction in the streets or public thoroughfare.

26. Every person who shall set fire to or burn any straw, hay, seeds, timber, or any other matter, or light any bonfire or fire in any public street, or discharge any kind of fire-arms, or any air-gun, or let off, or throw any kind of fire-works, or send up any fire-balloon any where in the said stations.

27. Every person who shall beat or sound any musical or sounding instrument, or any brass or metal utensil in the public streets, except at such times and places as shall be from time to time appointed by the sitting Magistrate upon application made to him for that purpose.

28. Every person, other than the said Municipal Committees, or their servants, who shall affix any bill, notice, or any paper against or upon any building, wall, fence, or board, or who shall write upon, deface, or mark with chalk, or paint, or in any way whatsoever, any building, wall, fence, or board without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof.

29. Every person who shall expose or allow to be exposed within the limits of the said stations any animal carcase, meat, poultry, game, fish, fish, or vegetables in a decayed and unwholesome state, and unfit for the food of man.

30. Every person who shall keep in any street, house, out-house, yard or ground, within the Towns of the said settlement any swine, except in styes erected on the sea side over ground covered by water at high-water mark,

31. Every person who shall keep as above any horned cattle, sheep or goats, without the special permission of the said Municipal Committees, and every person having such permission, who shall allow the said cattle, sheep or goats to be loose, and to stray in the streets and thoroughfares of the said Towns.

32. Every person who shall drive from the shafts of any vehicle, or from the inside of a palankeen carriage, unless a syce or horse-keeper be at the same time at the horse's head.

33. Every owner or driver of a buffalo that may be found on the public streets and highways, without a piece of wood fastened across its horns according to a model in the office of the Municipal Committees.

34. Every driver of a buffalo or bullock cart, whose halter, or nose string, or other rope for guiding and controlling the animal, shall be found defective.

35. Every person detected in publicly fighting cocks or gambling in any other manner, or joining as a spectator of such cock-fighting or gambling.

36. Every person, who may be found abroad with any knife, spear, or other offensive weapons, unless specially permitted by the chief civil authority of the stations.

XII. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Committees, with the concurrence of the sitting Magistrate, at their discretion, to grant a license to any person, permitting him to put up posts on the side of any public street, for the purpose of affixing thereon lamps to illuminate the said street, on occasions of festivals or ceremonies; and any person, who shall put up any such post, or affix any such lamp for any purpose, without license first had and obtained from the Municipal Committees, under the hand of the collector or surveyor, shall, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment, shall be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month.

XIII. Every person, being the owner, occupier, or farmer of any public market, bazar, or slaughter-house within the station, shall cause such market, bazar, or slaughter-house to be registered at the office of the Municipal Committees, with a general description of the place, size, number of shops and stalls, and kinds of goods therein exposed for sale; and if he shall refuse or neglect so to register the same, he shall forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment thereof, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month.

XIII. No place shall be used or occupied as a slaughter-house within the said stations, which was not such use and occupation at the time of the passing of this Act, and has not so continued ever since, unless and until a license for the erection thereof, or for the use and occupation thereof, as a slaughter-house has been obtained from the Municipal Committees, and every person who, without having first obtained such license as aforesaid, shall use as a slaughter-house any place within the said limits, not used as such at the time of the passing of this Act, and so continued to be used ever since, shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and in default of payment shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding one month.

XIV. Every person, being the owner, occupier or farmer of any market, bazar, tannery, or slaughter-house, within the said stations, is required to have such a number of drains therein as shall be considered sufficient by the Municipal Committees, and shall have all the floors and drains paved with stone or burnt brick, and he shall have also therein a supply of water sufficient, in the judgment of the Municipal Committees, to keep the whole place in a clean and wholesome state at all times, and in default thereof for four weeks after notice given to him by the surveyor, overseer, or superintendent of Police that such market, bazar, tannery, or slaughter-house is defective in any of the said particulars, shall forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding two months.

XLV. Any person, who, after the passing of this Act, shall establish any new tannery, or other manufactory, within the said stations, from which an offensive or unwholesome smell may arise, shall forfeit and pay, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees, and, in default of payment, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two months.

XLVI. All doors and gates put up after the passing of this Act, within the limits of the said stations, and which open upon any street, shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards, and if any such door or gate be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any street, the occupier of such house, building, yard, or land shall, within eight days after notice from the Municipal Committees to that effect, cause the same to be altered so as not to open outwards, and in case he neglects so to do, the Municipal Committees may make such alteration, and the expenses of such alteration shall be paid to the Municipal Committees by such occupier, and shall be recoverable from him in manner hereafter mentioned. And if any such door or gate was before the passing of this Act, hung so as to open outwards upon any street, the Municipal Committees may alter the same, or cause the same to be altered, so that no part thereof shall project over any public way.

Any person, being the owner or occupier of a house in the said stations, shall fix, at his own expense, in a conspicuous place outside of his house, or of his gate, in the street, the number of the same, as recorded in the Assessment Book, and no other number, and the said number shall be in legible figures, at least three inches in length, and any person who, after the expiration of three months after the publication of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to have such number affixed, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding fifty rupees.

XLVIII. Every person, being the occupier of a house in the said stations, and rated at a gross monthly rental of upwards for the same, shall fix, at his own expense, in a conspicuous place, outside of his house, or if the house be in a compound, outside of his gate, in the street, a lamp, of a pattern to be approved or ordered by the Municipal Committees, and the occupier shall keep and maintain a good and sufficient light burning in the said lamp throughout the night, and any person who, after the expiration of three months next after the passing of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to have such lamp affixed as aforesaid, or who shall on any night after the expiration of the said three months, neglect or refuse to keep a good and sufficient light burning therein as aforesaid, shall, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

XLIX. When any person shall have been convicted under the provisions of this Act, and shall not, within seven days after such conviction, discontinue the nuisance, or cease to commit the offence for which he was so convicted, such person shall be again liable to the penalties and punishments provided by this Act for such nuisance or offence, and may be again convicted or sentenced under this Act accordingly, and in cases where by the provisions of this Act offenders are required to have notice given them to remove the obstruction or nuisance previous to being liable to the penalties imposed by this Act, if such parties being once warned shall be convicted, and shall again offend against the provisions of this Act, it shall not be necessary to repeat the notice aforesaid, but the parties may be summoned at once.

L. Any person, who shall wilfully obstruct or molest the said Municipal Committees, or any of them, or their collector, surveyor or other officer, or workman employed by them under the provisions of this Act, or any person or Company with whom they may have contracted under the provisions of this Act, or any person employed by them in the performance or execution of any duty or thing, which they are respectively required or authorized to do under this Act, shall, for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in the discretion of the said Justice before whom he is convicted, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a period not exceeding three months.

LI. No person shall be liable to the payment of any penalty or forfeiture imposed by virtue of this Act, for any offence complained of before a Justice of the Peace, unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made before such Justice within three months next after the commission of such offence. Provided always, that nothing in this Section contained shall be construed so as to prevent the removal at any time of any obstruction or encroachment in or upon any of the streets or lands, or the imposing or levying at any time of any penalty or forfeiture in respect thereof.

LII. In all cases where any damages, costs, or expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, and the method of ascertaining the amount, or of enforcing the paying thereof, is not provided for, such amount in case of dispute shall be ascertained and determined by arbitration, in like manner as is provided for proceeding by arbitration under Act No. XXII of 1847, interpreted in manner aforesaid, and if the parties cannot agree upon two persons or arbitrators, or the arbitrators fail to pronounce their award as aforesaid, then by any two Justices of the Settlement, and if the amount so ascertained be not paid by the said Municipal Committees, or by the other party liable to pay the same, as the case may be, within seven days after demand thereof, the amount may be recovered by action of debt or on the case in Her Majesty's Court of Judicature or the Court of Request.

LIII. The said Municipal Committees shall publish short particulars of the several offences for which any penalty or punishment is imposed by this Act, affecting other persons than officers or servants of the said Municipal Committees, and of the amount of every such penalty and punishment, and shall cause such particulars to be painted on a board, or to be printed upon paper, and posted on a board in English, Chinese and Malays, and shall cause such board to be hung up or affixed in some conspicuous place in the office of the Collector of the said Municipal Committees, and when any such penalties are of local application, shall cause such boards to be affixed in some conspicuous place of the immediate neighbourhood to which such penalties are applicable, or have reference.

LIV. Every penalty of forfeiture imposed by this Act, or any expense incurred by the said Municipal Committees, in respect of any private drains, sewers, doors, or other things as aforesaid, the recovery of which is not otherwise provided for, may be recovered by summary proceeding before any Justice of the Peace of the Settlement, and on complaint being made to any such Justice, he shall issue his summons, requiring the party complained against to appear before him, at a time and place to be named in such summons, and every such summons shall be served on the party offending, either in person or by leaving the same at his usual or last known place of abode, and upon the appearance of the party claimed against, or in his absence, after proof of the due service of such summons, it shall be lawful for such Justice to proceed to the hearing of the complaint, which complaint shall be reduced to writing, and upon proof of the offence, or of the expense having been incurred, either by the confession of the party complained against, or upon the oath or solemn affirmation of one credible witness or more, it shall be lawful for such Justice to convict the offender or party summoned as aforesaid, and upon such conviction to adjudge the offender to pay the penalty, or forfeiture, or suffer the punishment, or to pay the expense incurred under the provisions of this Act, as well as such costs attending the conviction as such Justice shall think fit, which penalty or forfeiture and costs, so adjudged, may be levied by distress.

LV. Where in this Act any sum of money, whether in the nature of penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by distress, such sum of money shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party liable to pay the same, and the overplus arising from such goods and chattels after satisfying such sum of money and the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned on demand to the party whose goods shall have been distrained, or instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of any penalties, forfeitures or expenses imposed, or incurred, under the provisions of this Act, the Municipal Committees, or any one or more of their Members if they think fit, may authorize their collector or other person, to sue the person liable to pay such penalty, forfeiture, or expenses, or any part thereof, in the Court of Requests, and the costs, if any, incurred in any such suit, which are not recovered in the suit, may be defrayed out of the taxes levied under the provisions of Act of 1853.

LVI. No distress levied by virtue of this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall any such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such defect, or irregularity, may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action on the case in Her Majesty's said Court of Judicature, or in the Court of Requests.

LVII. The Justice of the Peace by whom any such penalty or forfeiture shall be imposed, may, when the application thereof is not otherwise provided for, award not more than one-half thereof, or any less sum to the informer, if he shall think fit so to do, and shall award the remainder, or the whole thereof, to the said Municipal Committees, to be by them applied to the purposes of this Act as to them shall appear fit, and shall order the same to be paid over to the collector of the said Municipal Committees for that purpose, whose receipt shall be a good and sufficient discharge to the person so paying the same.

LVIII. If through any act, neglect, or default, on account whereof any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by this Act, any damage to the property of the said Municipal Committees shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage, as well as to pay such penalty, and if the amount of such damage shall not be paid on demand, the same may be recovered by action of debt, or on the case, in the said Court of Requests, or in Her Majesty's said Court of Judicature.

LIX. It shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to summon any person to appear before him in any matter in which he shall have jurisdiction under the provisions of this Act, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, and require him, on oath or solemn affirmation, that he will testify the truth in such matter; and if any person so summoned shall without reasonable cause refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place appointed for that purpose, having been paid or tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, if from distance or any other cause he shall be lawfully entitled to claim such expenses, or if any person appearing shall refuse to be examined on his oath or solemn affirmation, according to law, or to give evidence before such Justice, every such person shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees, or, at the discretion of such Justice, shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month.

LX. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction: (that is to say), words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number, shall include the singular number; words importing the masculine gender only shall include females; the word "person" shall include corporations, whether aggregate or sole; the words "oath," "affirmation," and "solemn affirmation," when used alone, shall include oath or affirmation, or other declaration lawfully substituted for an oath in such case by any Legislative Act of the Governor General of India in Council, or by any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland extended to India; the word "street" shall include any public square, circus, street, court, alley, foot-path, highway, lane, road, thoroughfare, public passage, or other public place within the said stations; the word "lands" shall include messuages, buildings, walls, tenements, and hereditaments of any tenure as well as lands; the words the "said Municipal Committees," shall mean the Municipal Committees for the time being appointed or acting under the provisions of Act No. of 1853, and the word "month" shall mean calendar month.

The 27th May, 1853

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 27th of May, 1853.

ACT No.—OF 1853.

An Act relating to the Police of the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend divers Rules and Regulations which have been made in the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, by Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, under the Charter of Her Majesty's Court of Judicature; It is enacted as follows:

I. All the Rules, Ordinances and Regulations that have heretofore been passed in the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore and Malacca, by the Justices of the Peace in Quarter Sessions assembled, are hereby repealed.

II. If any person within the said Settlement, having sufficient means or employment, shall not duly maintain his wife or his legitimate or illegitimate children, and shall be thereof convicted before a Justice of the Peace, upon his own confession, or the oath of one or more credible witnesses, the said Justice may make an order upon such person for the maintenance of such wife and children, or any of them, at such monthly rate as to the Justice seems reasonable, and upon non-compliance with the said order for any one month, or longer period, any Justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, may commit the person so convicted, to the common jail of the station without labor, or to the house of correction to hard labor, for any time not exceeding two calendar months.

III. Every person who shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace, charged with having in his possession, or in his premises with his knowledge, or with conveying in any manner, anything which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen, or unlawfully obtained, and who shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such Justice how he came by the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before such Justice, should be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in the discretion of the said Justice, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any time, not exceeding three calendar months.

Persons convicted of having or conveying stolen goods, liable to penalty.

IV. When any person shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace, charged with having in his possession, or in his premises, with his knowledge, or with conveying anything stolen or unlawfully obtained, and shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent or servant to convey the same for some other person, such Justice shall cause every such person, and also, if necessary, every former and pretended purchaser, or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed, to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses upon oath touching the same; and if it shall appear to such Justice that any person shall have had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen, or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, or, in the discretion of the Justice, may be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding three calendar months.

Persons in whose possession stolen goods are found to be examined, &c.

Every such person shall be deemed to have had possession of such thing at the time and place when and where the same shall have been found or seized, and the possession of a carrier, agent or servant, shall be deemed to be the possession of the person who shall have employed such carrier, agent or servant to keep or convey the same.

V. If information shall be given, on oath, to a Justice of the Peace, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that anything stolen, or unlawfully obtained, is concealed, or lodged, in any dwelling-house, building or other place, such Justice, by special warrant under his hand, directed to any police officer or constable, may cause such dwelling-house, building or other place to be entered and searched at any time of the day, or by night, if power for that purpose be given by such warrant, and the said Justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may empower such police officer, or constable, with such assistance as may be found necessary (such constable having previously made known his authority), to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise; and if upon search thereupon made any such thing shall be found, then to convey the same before a Justice, or to guard the same on the spot, until the offenders are taken, before a Justice, or otherwise dispose thereof in some place of safety; and moreover to take into custody, and carry before the said Justice every person found in such house or place, who shall appear to have been privy to the deposit of any such thing, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect the same to have been stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

On suspicion of goods being stolen or unlawfully obtained, Justice may grant search warrant.

Justices of the Peace may make order of maintenance for wives and children.

VI. If information shall be given to any superintendent or head constable, belonging to the police, that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any stolen property is concealed, or lodged in any dwelling-house or other place, and the said superintendent, or head constable, shall have good grounds for believing that, by reason of the delay in obtaining a search warrant, the property is likely to be removed, the said superintendent, or head constable, in virtue of his office, may search for specific articles alleged to have been stolen in the houses and places specified; provided always that a list of the articles stolen, or missing, be delivered and taken down in writing, with a declaration stating that the robbery has been committed, and that the informant has good ground to believe that the property is deposited in such house or place; and provided further, that the person who lost the goods, or his representative, accompany the officer in the search.

VII. All persons charged with the commission of any of the offences specified in Acts XXI. of 1839 and III. of 1842 and XIV. of 1850, may be tried by any Justice of the Peace for the said Settlement, provided the value of the property which the prisoner is charged with having stolen, does not, according to the belief of such Justice, exceed fifty rupees, anything in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding, and all the powers by Act XXI. of 1839 (except Section VIII. aforesaid) and Act III. of 1842 and Act XIV. of 1850, given or reserved to any such Justice for the trial, conviction and sentence of parties charged with having stolen property not exceeding twenty rupees in value, and all the provisions of the said Acts (except as aforesaid) shall extend and be applicable to the trial, conviction and sentence of parties charged with having stolen property, not exceeding, according to the belief of the Justice, fifty rupees in value.

VIII. Every person charged with the offence of feloniously receiving goods or money, knowing the same to be stolen, may be tried by any Justice of the Peace; provided that the value of the property stolen or received does not, according to the belief of the Justice, exceed fifty rupees, and every such person, on conviction of any such offence, shall be liable, at the discretion of the Justice, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term, not exceeding six calendar months; and all the powers and provisions of Act III. of 1842 and Act XXI. of 1839, except Section VIII. aforesaid, and of Act XIV. of 1850, shall apply, so far as they may be applicable, to the trial, conviction and sentence of any person charged under this Section, with the offence of feloniously receiving goods or money, knowing the same to be stolen; provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Justice that such person has been previously convicted of, or is in the habit of receiving stolen goods, knowing the same to be stolen, the said Justice shall commit such person for trial before the Court of Judicature.

IX. Every person who is accessory before or after the fact, to any felony, which is punishable on summary conviction before any Justice, is liable to be tried and convicted summarily before such Justice, on his own confession, or the oath of one or more credible witnesses, and the convicting Justice shall have power to sentence any such accessory to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any time, not exceeding six calendar months, or in his or their discretion, instead of trying him, to commit him for trial to the Court of Judicature, or other Court having authority to try him.

X. Whenever any boy, under the age of sixteen years, is convicted before a Justice of the Peace, either of simple larceny under the said Acts XXI. of 1839 and XIV. of 1850, or under this Act, of feloniously receiving goods or money, knowing the same to be stolen, or of being an accessory to any felony, which is punishable on summary conviction before any Justice, or of the offences enumerated in the next succeeding clause of this Act, the said Justice, if he thinks fit, may sentence him to receive corporal punishment, not exceeding fifteen stripes of a light rattan, instead of sentencing him to imprisonment.

XI. Any person who shall commit any assault, forcible entry, or other injury, accompanied with force, not being a felony within the said Settlement, against the person or property of any person whatsoever, shall be liable, on conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace, to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and the said Justice may award the whole, or any part of such fine, to the party or parties aggrieved, by way of satisfaction for such injury, or, in the discretion of such Justice, such person shall be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any time not exceeding four calendar months.

XII. Any superintendent or head constable of police, may take into custody, or authorize a constable to take into custody, without warrant, any person who within the said Settlement, shall be charged by any other person with committing an assault, in which such superintendent or police shall have good reason to believe that such assault has been committed, although not within view of such superintendent, and that by reason of the recent commission of the offence, a warrant could not have been obtained for the appearance of the offender.

XIII. If complaint shall be made before any Justice that any person within the said Settlement has unlawfully taken or caused to be taken away against her will, any woman, or has unlawfully taken, or caused to be taken, or enticed away any female child under the age of sixteen years, out of the possession or protection, and against the will of the husband, father, mother, guardian or other person, who has the lawful order, keeping, education or government of such child, for the purpose of living in adultery with such woman or child, or purposes of prostitution, or of deflowering, or disposing of her in marriage, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to make an order for the immediate restoration of such woman to her liberty, or of such female child to her husband, father, mother, guardian, or such other person as aforesaid, as the case may be, and to compel compliance with such order, and if it be necessary to use force for that purpose, any superintendent or constable of police, duly authorized by the Justice in that behalf, with such assistants as he may deem necessary, may break open doors, or otherwise compel compliance with the same, and the said Justice may commit any person charged with taking, or causing to be taken, or enticing any woman or female child as aforesaid, for any of the purposes aforesaid, for trial before the Court of Judicature.

XIV. Every person who, under the provisions of Act XIV. of 1851, shall have or keep any house, shop, room or place of public resort or entertainment, within the said Settlement, wherein provisions, liquors, or refreshments of any kind shall be sold or consumed (whether the same shall be kept or retailed therein, or procured elsewhere,) and who shall knowingly or wilfully permit drunkenness or other disorderly behaviour in such house, shop, room or place, or who shall knowingly suffer any unlawful games or any gaming whatsoever therein, or who shall knowingly permit prostitutes, or persons of notoriously bad character, to meet or remain therein, or who shall wilfully harbour or conceal any seaman or apprentice, who shall have deserted, knowing or having reason to believe such seaman or apprentice so harboured or concealed to be a deserter, shall be liable to a penalty, not exceeding one hundred rupees, and shall be liable to forfeiture of his licence, in addition to any other penalty or punishment that shall be imposed on him.

XV. Any superintendent or constable of police may at any time of the day or night enter such licensed houses, shops, rooms or places of public resort or amusement, and, if necessary, may use force for the purpose of effecting such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise.

XVI. Every person, who shall take or throw, or attempt to take or throw into any jail or house of correction of the Settlement, any quantity of spirits, or any quantity of opium, or any quantity of drugs, or consent of the jailer, or of the jail, or house of correction, shall be liable for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty, not exceeding fifty rupees, or, at the discretion of the said Justice, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding two months.

XVII. Every person, who shall have been committed to any jail or house of correction, or who shall be in custody at any police office or station, and who shall unlawfully break or escape from such jail, house of correction, police office or station, shall be liable, for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding three months, and such imprisonment shall commence and take effect from and after the expiration of any other sentence of imprisonment, under which such person may be imprisoned at the time of committing the offence aforesaid.

XVIII. Every person, who shall be found drunk and incapable of taking care of himself, in any street or public thoroughfare, or who shall be guilty of any riotous or indecent behaviour in any street, public thoroughfare, police office or station, shall be liable, on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty, not exceeding twenty rupees, for every such offence, or, at the discretion of the said Justice, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding fourteen days, and any constable or other officer of police may take into custody, and lodge in the nearest station house, any such person so found drunk, or incapable of taking care of himself, and such person may be retained in such custody until recovered from drunkenness, when he shall be brought before a Justice of the Peace.

XIX. Any constable or peace officer may take into custody, without a warrant, any person who shall be found between sunset and sunrise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to break or enter into any house, or other building whatsoever, or any loose, idle or disorderly persons, whom he shall find disturbing the public peace, or whom he shall have good cause to suspect of having committed, or being about to commit, any felony, misdemeanor, or breach of the peace, or any reputed thief, whom he shall find between sunset and sunrise on board any boat in the river, or lying, or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare, or other place, and not giving a satisfactory account of himself, or any person having in his possession without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on such person) any picklock, key, crow, jack, bit or other implement of house-breaking, or any person found between sunset and sunrise, having his face blackened, or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any felony, or any person who shall be found between sunset and sunrise in any dwelling-house or other building whatsoever, with intent to commit any felony therein, and every such offender, on conviction before a Justice, either on his own confession, or on the evidence of one or more credible witnesses, shall be liable, at the discretion of the said Justice, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding four calendar months.

XX. Every person who shall beg or apply for alms or relief in any public road, street or thoroughfare, or who shall expose, or exhibit any sores, wounds, bodily ailment or deformity in such roads, streets or public thoroughfares, with the object of exciting charity, or of obtaining alms or relief, or who shall seek for or obtain alms or relief by means of any false statements or pretences, or who shall cause, aid or abet any such person as aforesaid in the commission of any of the said offences, shall, for every such offence, on conviction before a Justice, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any period not exceeding two calendar months.

XXI. Every person who shall drive or ride furiously in any of the said streets, or public thoroughfares, shall, for every such offence, on conviction thereof before a Justice, be liable to a penalty, not exceeding fifty rupees, or, in default of payment thereof, to imprisonment for any period not exceeding one calendar month.

XXII. Every person, who shall drive any vehicle of any description, at any time between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise, without having a lighted lamp affixed to such vehicle, shall, for every such offence, on conviction thereof before a Justice, be liable to a penalty of not more than fifty rupees, or, in default of payment thereof, to
